I, William N. Hancock, hereby declare as follows:

1. I make this declaration of my own personal knowledge and could testify thereto if called as a witness.

2. I am currently a partner in Eisenberg and Hancock, LLP, and am admitted to practice law in all California State Courts and the Federal District Court for the Northern District of California.

3. I am a 1982 graduate of Hastings College of the Law where I was Order of the Coif and a member of the Thurston Honor Society. I was admitted to the California bar in 1982. Upon graduation, I worked as an associate with Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe in San Francisco. In 1983, I left Orrick and began a two-year clerkship with the Honorable J. Anthony Kline of the California Court of Appeal in San Francisco. In 1985, I was a founding staff member of the First District Appellate Project in San Francisco. In 1986, I returned to the California Court of Appeal, working first as a research attorney on the central staff for the Sixth District in San Jose (one year), then as a chambers attorney for the Honorable Clinton White, Presiding Justice of Division Three of the First District Court of Appeal in San Francisco (7 years), was temporarily assigned to the staff of the Honorable Ming Chin (when he was a Justice of the Court of Appeal) upon Justice White's retirement, and was later hired by the Honorable Joanne Parrilli of the First District Court of Appeal as a Senior Research Attorney in her chambers (five years). In 2001, I left the court to work for Horvitz & Levy, LLP, a 35-lawyer appellate specialty firm headquartered in Encino, California, first as a contract attorney, and then as "of counsel" in their Oakland office. In April of 2004, I left Horvitz & Levy to establish my own appellate practice, the Hancock Law Office, in San Francisco. In July of 2006, I formed a law partnership, Eisenberg and Hancock, LLP with my long time colleague, Jon B. Eisenberg. Mr. Eisenberg and I continue to practice law together as Eisenberg and Hancock, LLP.

4. Since I returned to private practice in 2001, I have handled dozens of appeals in the California Court of Appeal as either the lead attorney primarily responsible for drafting the briefs, or as a supervising attorney, responsible for editing the briefs and advising the primary author. In addition, I have had more limited involvement in several federal appeals in the Ninth Circuit.

5. In 2009 and 2010, I was named a Northern California "Super Lawyer" in the field of appellate law. The Super Lawyer selection process is described at http://www.superlawyers.com/about/selection_process.html. In the Spring semester of 2009, I taught California Appellate Process as an adjunct professor at the University of California, Hastings College of the Law. I have been invited to return to Hastings to again teach this class, but I am currently alternating teaching duties with my partner, Jon Eisenberg.

6. My current standard commercial rate is $525 per hour. I routinely charge this rate to a variety of clients who are billed monthly for my services. I am informed and believe that my standard commercial rate is reasonable and customary for an attorney of my experience and caliber practicing in San Francisco, California.

7. I first became involved in the Al-Haramain litigation in July of 2006 when I formed a partnership with Mr. Eisenberg. Mr. Eisenberg has been the lead attorney in the Al-Haramain litigation for our firm, while I have played a supporting role, conducting legal research, review and analysis of documents, and other ancillary services as needed. I have been actively engaged in helping to craft the strategy for this litigation, particularly as that strategy might have implications for future appeals.

8. I am primarily responsible for preparing and overseeing the billing records of Eisenberg and Hancock, LLP. Generally, Mr. Eisenberg submits his written time entries to me on a daily basis which I in turn cause to be entered into our computerized billing program. Because I 20 am responsible for maintaining the computerized billing program, I enter my time entries directly into the billing program on a daily basis. All attorneys, paralegals, and law clerks in our office bill in increments of .1 of an hour. In the ordinary course of business, all billing entries are generally made in our RTG billing program on the day the work is done, or, at maximum, within 48 to 72 hours of when the work is performed.

9. To date, I have devoted 235.1 hours to this case as detailed below.

26 10. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 54-5(b)(2), I provide the following statement of the 27 services I have rendered in this case and summary of the time I have spent providing those services. 28 At the Court's request, and pursuant to Civil Local Rule 54-5(b)(2), I am prepared to produce my contemporary time records or an abstract thereof for in camera inspection by the Court, if the Court deems it appropriate.
