Attorneys for Plaintiffs Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc., Wendell Belew and Asim Ghafoor

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY TELECOMMUNICATIONS RECORDS LITIGATION	MDL Docket No. 06-1792 VRW
This Document Relates Solely To: Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc., et al. v. Obama, et al. (C07-CV-0109-VRW)	Declaration of Thomas H. Nelson in Support of Motion for Attorney's Fees
AL-HARAMAIN ISLAMIC FOUNDATION, INC., et al., Plaintiffs,
VS.
BARACK H. OBAMA, et al.,
Defendants.

1

I, Thomas H. Nelson, hereby declare as follows:

I make this Declaration based on my own personal knowledge and would testify to the statements in this Declaration if called as a witness.

2. The purpose of this Declaration is to provide background and details regarding certain activities for which attorneys fees are being requested.

6 Background: Education and Prior Experience

7 3. After graduation from high school (Soap Lake, WA, 1962) I attended the University of Washington where I received a B.A. degree in 1966. Thereafter I spent 8 9 approximately four years as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Iran teaching and, following the 10 Khorrassan earthquake of 1968, working in relief and reconstruction activities. Upon 11 returning to the United States, beginning in the fall of 1970 I attended Valparaiso 12 University Law School, where I obtained a J.D. degree "With High Distinction" in 1973. I then received a Sterling Fellowship to attend the LL.M. program at Yale University, from 13 14 which I was graduated in 1974. I was admitted to the Connecticut Bar in 1974. 15 4. Following my graduation I became an Assistant Professor of Law at the 16 University of Connecticut School of Law in West Hartford, CT, where I worked for three 17 years. I taught first-year Contracts, Administrative Law, and other courses. 5. 18 I left UConn in 1977 to return to the Northwest, spending an interim year as a Visiting Associate Professor of Law at Valparaiso University, where I taught 19 20 Constitutional Law, Securities Regulation, and Property II. 21 6. I was hired by the Portland law firm of Rives, Bonyhadi, and Smith in May 22 1978, where I engaged in utility regulatory matters on behalf of its main client, Pacific

23 Power & Light Company. Rives, Bonyhadi then merged with Davies Biggs of Portland, ultimately to become the present firm of Stoel Rives. I became a partner in Stoel Rives in 1982, where I continued to work primarily on utility regulatory matters.

7. I left Stoel Rives in 1996 to form my own firm in Portland, which ultimately became Nelson Lovinger Norling and Kaufmann, and which continued to practice primarily utility law on behalf of Pacific Power & Light Company's successor, PacifiCorp.
Beginning in about 2000 I became more active in civil and human rights activities on behalf of Native Americans and Palestinians.

8 8. My recent pro bono activities include co-founder of Americans United for 9 Palestinian Human Rights (Portland, OR), member of International Solidarity Movement 10 nonviolent direct action campaigns in Israel and Occupied Territories, 2000-2006,

11 member and legal counsel of Free Gaza Movement first boatlift to Gaza, August 2008, 12 and member of National Lawyers Guild Delegation to Gaza, February 2009.

13 Events Leading to Representation of Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation

14 9. In 2004 I came to represent Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation of Ashland, Oregon. This occurred because I had represented Brandon Mayfield, an Oregon 15 16 Muslim attorney who had been falsely accused of being involved in the Madrid train 17 bombing of that year. As a result of the national attention given to that affair I was 18 contacted by the charity's attorneys and asked to represent the charity in a number of 19 matters stemming from the freezing of its assets in Oregon by the Department of the 20 Treasury. Since that time I have been the primary attorney for the Oregon charity and 21 main liaison both to its personnel in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia and with its attorneys in the 22 United States. It was in that role that I initiated litigation on behalf of the charity in this 23 case; the facts surrounding the initiation of litigation are well established in the record of 24 this proceeding.

1 10. My role in this litigation has been to assist in the development and 2 implementation of legal theories challenging the government's "warrantless wiretapping" program. In addition, I have been the primary, and often the only, direct contact 3 4 between the legal team's efforts in the United States and the plaintiffs in this litigation, 5 including Messrs. Belew and Ghafoor, the corporation's Board of Directors, and other 6 officials located in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. I was also the primary liaison between the 7 legal team and other attorneys (primarily in Washington D.C.) who have represented plaintiff Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation in related administrative and civil litigation. 8 9 11. I maintain time records in this case in the same manner as I maintain time 10 records for my other cases, both paying and nonpaying. Specifically, during the course 11 of the day I record time spent, in tenths of an hour, and following completion of the day's 12 work I enter that time in "Timeslips" software.

12. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 54-5(b)(2), I provide the following statement 13 14 of the services activities I have undertaken, costs I have incurred, and the services I 15 have rendered in this case. At the Court's request, and pursuant to Civil Local Rule 54-16 5(b)(2), I am prepared to produce my contemporary time records or an abstract thereof 17 for in camera inspection by the Court if the Court deems such appropriate. My hours include time spent traveling to San Francisco, Washington D.C., and Riyadh, Saudi 18 19 Arabia to confer with the plaintiffs and potential witnesses in this case, to obtain 20 guidance, information, and records salient to this litigation, and to participate in court 21 proceedings.

22 Particular Items of Fees and Costs

13. There are two items for which recovery is requested that deserve explanation and discussion. They are set forth below.

13.1 1 Retention of Expert Counsel on Ethical Matters: During the course • 2 of the proceeding I requested expert legal advice on professional ethics from 3 Mark Fucile, an Oregon attorney admitted to practice in Oregon, Washington, 4 Idaho, Alaska, and the District of Columbia. His practice focuses on ethical 5 and professional responsibility issues that arise in the legal profession. The 6 journals of the Oregon, Washington, and Idaho bar associations regularly 7 publish articles by Mr. Fucile on the rules of professional responsibility in those state. I requested Mr. Fucile to provide legal counsel on the following 8 9 two primary topics:

What obligation does an attorney who has a reasonable suspicion that his communications with and/or affecting his client have to protect his communications from interception? What steps should the attorney take to protect the client's confidences in such a situation?
 What obligation does an attorney faced with the United States Government's demand for access to his computers on the basis that

- 16classified information may be on those computers have to his client?17More specifically, may such an attorney allow the United States18Government, an adverse party in this and other unrelated litigation, to
- 19 have access to his computers?

I sought advice on the first issue because it was clear at the beginning of this litigation that all communications with a director of the charity located in Saudi Arabia were being intercepted and monitored by the defendant(s) in this proceeding and that such surreptitious interceptions were being used to the client's (clients') detriment. These interceptions were reasonably believed to include my own communications with the director of the charity residing in Saudi Arabia. Mr. Fucile's advice resulted in the international travel for which recovery is being sought in this motion. I sought advice on the second issue because the United States sought to have access to all of my computers which may have once had an electronic copy of the classified document that caused the initiation of this proceeding.

Mr. Fucile provided professional services from November 2006 through June 2007 and billed for his services on a monthly basis. The total amount paid to Mr. Fucile was $6715.00, recovery for which is sought.

10 13.2 Travel Expenses: The fee petition includes charges for time and 11 expenses incurred in travel, including travel to Washington DC and to Riyadh, 12 Saudi Arabia, where the director of the charity referred to above resides. During the relevant period (December 2005 to the present) I made 13 14 approximately 40 trips to the Middle East, most involving destinations that included Riyadh, and on all visits to Riyadh I met with and provided legal 15 16 counsel to the Director of Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation regarding the 17 status of this litigation as well as other matters. This petition seeks recovery 18 of travel expenses for only two trips to Saudi Arabia (one prior to the filing of 19 the complaint in this case and one following the Court's order granting 20 plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment), for two trips to Washington DC to 21 meet with plaintiffs and plaintiffs' attorneys as well as potential witnesses, and 22 for three trips to San Francisco. The total travel reimbursement sought for 23 these trips is $6489.18.
