Case No. C 07 00943 WHA

DEFENDANTS' SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFFS' AMENDED
INTERROGATORIES

1 Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants
2 National Football League Players Association (“NFLPA”) and National Football League Players
3 Incorporated (“Players Inc”) (collectively, “Defendants”) hereby respond and object to Plaintiffs’ 4 amendments to certain Interrogatories originally propounded in Plaintiffs’ First Set of 5 Interrogatories to Defendant NFLPA dated November 20, 2007, Plaintiffs’ First Set of 6 Interrogatories to Defendant Players Inc dated November 20, 2007, and Plaintiffs’ Second Set of 7 Interrogatories to Defendant Players Inc dated December 11, 2007 (collectively, the 8 “Interrogatories” or “Amended Interrogatories,” and individually, an “Interrogatory”).

9 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

10 The following responses and objections are based upon the information currently 11 known and available to Defendants, including information ascertained pursuant to Defendants’ 12 reasonable inquiry in response to each Interrogatory. Discovery and investigation are ongoing, 13 and may disclose the existence of additional information responsive to the Interrogatories.
14 Defendants reserve the right to amend or supplement these responses and objections as 15 additional information is discovered, revealed, recalled or otherwise ascertained. Defendants 16 further reserve the right to amend these responses and objections in light of any future rulings by 17 the Court. Defendants specifically reserve the right to utilize subsequently discovered 18 information or evidence at trial.

19 Defendants’ responses and objections to any Interrogatory shall not waive any 20 objections by Defendants, in this or in any subsequent proceeding, on any grounds, including 21 objections as to the competency, relevancy, materiality, privilege or admissibility of the 22 responses, or the subject matter thereof.

23 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

24 Defendants assert the following general objections with respect to each of the 25 Interrogatories:

26 1. Defendants object to the Interrogatories, including the General 27 Instructions, to the extent that they purport to impose obligations beyond those imposed by the 28

1 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the Northern District of California, an 2 applicable Order of this Court, or any other applicable rules or statutes.

3           2. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they seek 4 information subject to the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other 5 applicable evidentiary or other privilege, immunity or restriction. Any response is made without 6 waiver of any privilege, claim of confidentiality, or other objection. Insofar as any response by 7 Defendants may be deemed to be a waiver of any privilege or right, such waiver shall be deemed 8 to be a limited waiver with respect to that particular information only.

9           3. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they seek 10 information constituting or containing trade secrets, competitively sensitive information or other 11 non-public confidential or proprietary information. Defendants agree to disclose such 12 information only pursuant to the terms of the Stipulated Protective Order that has been so 13 ordered by the Court in this action.

14           4. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they seek 15 responses that are not relevant to the subject matter of this action and not reasonably calculated 16 to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. As set forth in the next paragraph, this objection 17 includes, but is not limited to, Interrogatories calling for information outside the applicable 18 statutes of limitations.

19           5. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they call for 20 responses relating to any asserted conduct by Defendants prior to February 14, 2003, the 21 commencement of the earliest applicable statutes of limitations for any claim asserted in the 22 Third Amended Complaint.

23           6. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent they call for 24 information outside the scope of the claims of the putative class representatives.

25           7. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they are vague, 26 ambiguous, overly broad in scope, confusing or unduly burdensome.

27
28

1 8. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they seek 2 information not in Defendants' possession, custody or control. Defendants construe each 3 Interrogatory as requiring them to engage in reasonable searches for responsive information 4 within their possession, custody or control.

5 9. Defendants reserve all objections or other positions they may have as to 6 the competency, relevance, materiality, privilege, or admissibility of any information produced 7 in response to the Interrogatories for any purpose whatsoever.

8 10. Defendants specifically incorporate and maintain each and every objection 9 they made in their initial responses and objections to Plaintiffs' Interrogatories.

10 RESPONSES AND SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS

11 Defendants expressly incorporate each of the above general objections in their 12 responses to each specific Amended Interrogatory as if fully set forth therein.

13 AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 3 TO THE NFLPA AND PLAYERS INC

14 Plaintiffs originally propounded Interrogatory No. 3 to the NFLPA and Players 15 Inc as follows:

16 IDENTIFY each retired NFL player who paid dues to be a member 17 of the NFLPA within the statute of limitations and within the 18 period of time that the Constitution attached hereto as Exhibit B 19 was in effect, but who, according to your records, did not sign a 20 GLA the same year that they were a member. For purposes of this 21 interrogatory, the term "IDENTIFY" means to provide the (a)
22 retired NFL player's full name; (b) retired NFL player's address; 23 and (c) year(s) in which that player paid dues.

24 Plaintiffs have since amended Interrogatory No. 3, as set forth in correspondence 25 between counsel, "such that it asks Players Inc to identify 'each retired NFL player who paid 26 dues to be a member of the NFLPA within the statute of limitations [], but who according to your 27 records, did not have a GLA in effect the same year that they were a member.'"

28

1 DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 3

2 Defendants object to Amended Interrogatory No. 3 on the ground that it is vague 3 and ambiguous in its reference to retired NFL players who paid dues to "be a member of the 4 NFLPA." Subject to and without waiving that objection, for purposes of this response 5 Defendants interpret the quoted language to refer to retired NFL players who paid dues to be a 6 member of the NFLPA Retired Players Association.

7 Defendants further object to Amended Interrogatory No. 3 on the grounds that it 8 is unduly burdensome, and calls for information that is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated 9 to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Specifically, Amended Interrogatory No. 3 10 requests the "full name" and "address" of putative class members. Such information is neither 11 relevant nor discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure before the certification of a 12 class. See, e.g., Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 354-55 (1978). Further, 13 Amended Interrogatory No. 3 requests information about certain members of the NFLPA Retired 14 Players Association without regard to whether such persons were members of the NFLPA 15 Retired Players Association during the time period that Bernard Parrish – the only Plaintiff who 16 asserts a claim based on being a member of the NFLPA Retired Players Association – was such a 17 member. Within the limitations period, Mr. Parrish was a member of the NFLPA Retired 18 Players Association from April 28, 2005 to April 30, 2006. Information related to retired players 19 who were not members of the NFLPA Retired Players Association at any time during this period 20 is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

21 Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing objections, Defendants respond to 22 Amended Interrogatory No. 3 as follows. Enclosed as Exhibit 1 hereto is a list of each retired 23 player who paid dues to be a member of the NFLPA Retired Players Association but who did not 24 have a standard form GLA in effect during the year of his membership. To the extent that a 25 retired player paid NFLPA Retired Players Association membership dues for more than one year 26 in which he did not have a standard form GLA in effect, then that retired player is listed multiple 27 times to indicate each such membership year. This list includes retired players who paid dues 28

1 from February 14, 2003, the commencement of the applicable statute of limitations period, to 2 November 15, 2007, the date of the filing of the Third Amended Complaint in this action.

3 AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 4 TO PLAYERS INC

4 Plaintiffs originally propounded Interrogatory No. 4 to Players Inc as follows:

5 IDENTIFY each retired NFL player you paid from February 14, 6 2003 to December 31, 2003 pursuant to a GLA. For purposes of 7 this interrogatory, the term "IDENTIFY" means to provide the (a)
8 retired NFL player's full name; (b) retired NFL player's address, 9 email address and phone number; (c) exact amount paid to that 10 player from February 14, 2003 to December 31, 2003; and (d)
11 entit(y,ies) to whom you licensed the retired NFL player's rights.

12 Plaintiffs have since amended Interrogatory No. 4, as set forth in correspondence
13 between counsel, such that the term "GLA" as used in this Interrogatory is now defined to mean
14 a "standard form Group Licensing Authorization," and that the phrase "paid ... pursuant to a 15 GLA" means retired players who received licensing-related payments from Players Inc at a time
16 when the retired player had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into any "ad 17 hoc" agreement with respect to such payments.

18 PLAYERS INC'S RESPONSE TO AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 4

19 Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 4 on the grounds that the phrase
20 "paid ... pursuant to a GLA" is vague and ambiguous in this context, and that Amended 21 Interrogatory No. 4 improperly calls for a legal conclusion. Players Inc further objects to 22 Amended Interrogatory No. 4 on the ground that it calls for information that is neither relevant
23 nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Specifically,
24 Amended Interrogatory No. 4 calls for information about retired players who were "paid ...
25 pursuant to a GLA" regardless of whether such standard form GLA was in the same form as the 26 GLA signed by Herbert Adderley – the only Plaintiff who asserts a claim based on having signed 27 a standard form GLA. Moreover, Amended Interrogatory No. 4 requests the "full name" and 28

1 “address, email address and phone number” of putative class members. Such information is 2 neither relevant nor discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure before the 3 certification of a class. See, e.g., Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 354-55
4 (1978). Players Inc further objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 4 on the ground that it is 5 unduly burdensome to determine the “exact amount” paid to each retired player within the 6 requested time period.

7           Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing objections, Players Inc responds to 8 Amended Interrogatory No. 4 as follows. On or about June 17, 2003, certain retired players were 9 each paid $750 by Players Inc in connection with an Electronic Arts Inc. (“EA”) retired players 10 program. The retired players who were paid such $750 payments, and who had standard form 11 GLAs in effect at the time, but who had not entered into an “ad hoc” agreement with respect to 12 such payments, are listed on Exhibit 2 hereto. Players Inc makes no representation with respect 13 to whether such standard form GLAs were in the same form as the GLA signed by Adderley, or 14 whether the player was retired when he signed such standard form GLA.

15           Further, from February 14, 2003 to December 31, 2003, in connection with Photo 16 File, Inc. (“Photo File”), Players Inc paid royalties to certain retired players who had standard 17 form GLAs in effect, but who had not entered into an “ad hoc” agreement with respect to such 18 payments. Players Inc makes no representation with respect to whether such standard form
19 GLAs were in the same form as the GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was retired
20 when he signed such standard form GLA.

21           Given the large number of royalty payments and the number of players at issue,
22 and the very small dollar amount of most of the royalty payments (the majority of the royalty 23 payments were for less than $10, and many of the royalty payments were for less than $1), it is 24 unduly burdensome for Players Inc to determine the “exact amount” so paid to these retired 25 players within the requested time period. However, Players Inc’s general practice with respect to 26 such payments was as follows.

1 Photo File reported and paid royalties to Players Inc (if any) on a quarterly basis.
2 If quarterly royalty payments to a particular retired player resulted in that retired player being
3 due $10 or more by Players Inc, then that retired player was timely paid after Players Inc
4 received and processed the quarterly payment. However, if a Photo File quarterly royalty
5 payment with respect to a particular retired player did not result in that player being due $10 or 6 more, then Players Inc would not make a payment to that retired player until the $10 threshold
7 was met. The reason for this $10 threshold was that it was administratively impractical to make 8 payments smaller than $10. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a list of royalty amounts processed
9 by Players Inc on the dates specified on the list, for individual retired players with standard form
10 GLAs (as discussed above) in effect as of the processing date. Any payments to such retired 11 players would have been processed in accordance with the general practice described above.

12 AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 5 TO PLAYERS INC

13 Plaintiffs originally propounded Interrogatory No. 5 to Players Inc as follows:

14 IDENTIFY each retired NFL player you paid in 2004 pursuant to a 15 GLA. For purposes of this interrogatory, the term "IDENTIFY"
16 means to provide the (a) retired NFL player's full name; (b) retired
17 NFL player's address, email address and phone number; (c) exact 18 amount paid to that player in 2004; and (d) entit(y,ies) to whom 19 you licensed the retired NFL player's rights.

20 Plaintiffs have since amended Interrogatory No. 5, as set forth in correspondence
21 between counsel, such that the term "GLA" as used in this Interrogatory is now defined to mean
22 a "standard form Group Licensing Authorization," and that the phrase "paid ... pursuant to a
23 GLA" means retired players who received licensing-related payments from Players Inc at a time
24 when the retired player had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into any "ad 25 hoc" agreement with respect to such payments.

1 PLAYERS INC'S RESPONSE TO AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 5

2           Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 5 on the grounds that the phrase
3 "paid ... pursuant to a GLA" is vague and ambiguous in this context, and that Amended
4 Interrogatory No. 5 improperly calls for a legal conclusion. Players Inc further objects to 5 Amended Interrogatory No. 5 on the ground that it calls for information that is neither relevant
6 nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Specifically,
7 Amended Interrogatory No. 5 calls for information about retired players who were "paid ...
8 pursuant to a GLA" regardless of whether such standard form GLA was in the same form as the 9 GLA signed by Herbert Adderley – the only Plaintiff who asserts a claim based on having signed
10 a standard form GLA. Moreover, Amended Interrogatory No. 5 requests the "full name" and 11 "address, email address and phone number" of putative class members. Such information is 12 neither relevant nor discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure before the 13 certification of a class. See, e.g., Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 354-55
14 (1978). Players Inc further objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 5 on the ground that it is 15 unduly burdensome to determine the "exact amount" paid to each retired player within the 16 requested time period.

17           Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing objections, Players Inc responds to 18 Amended Interrogatory No. 5 as follows. In connection with Photo File, from January 1, 2004 to 19 December 31, 2004, Players Inc paid royalties to certain retired players who had standard form 20 GLAs in effect, but who had not entered into an "ad hoc" agreement with respect to such 21 payments. Players Inc makes no representation with respect to whether such standard form
22 GLAs were in the same form as the GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was retired
23 when he signed such standard form GLA.

24           Given the large number of royalty payments and the number of players at issue,
25 and the very small dollar amount of most of the royalty payments (the majority of the royalty 26 payments were for less than $10, and many of the royalty payments were for less than $1), it is 27 unduly burdensome for Players Inc to determine the "exact amount" so paid to these retired 28

1 players within the requested time period. However, Players Inc's general practice with respect to 2 such payments was as follows.

3 Photo File reported and paid royalties to Players Inc (if any) on a quarterly basis.
4 If quarterly royalty payments to a particular retired player resulted in that retired player being
5 due $10 or more by Players Inc, then that retired player was timely paid after Players Inc
6 received and processed the quarterly payment. However, if a Photo File quarterly royalty
7 payment with respect to a particular retired player did not result in that player being due $10 or 8 more, then Players Inc would not make a payment to that retired player until the $10 threshold
9 was met. The reason for this $10 threshold was that it was administratively impractical to make 10 payments smaller than $10. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a list of royalty amounts processed
11 by Players Inc on the dates specified on the list, for individual retired players with standard form
12 GLAs (as discussed above) in effect as of the processing date. Any payments to such retired 13 players would have been processed in accordance with the general practice described above.

14 Moreover, Players Inc paid royalties in 2004 to certain additional retired players
15 who had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into an "ad hoc" agreement
16 with respect to such payments. The name of the retired player, the amount of the payment, and 17 the name of the licensee is set forth in the list attached hereto as Exhibit 4. Players Inc makes no 18 representation with respect to whether such standard form GLAs were in the same form as the 19 GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was retired when he signed such standard form
20 GLA.

21 AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 6 TO PLAYERS INC

22 Plaintiffs originally propounded Interrogatory No. 6 to Players Inc as follows:

23 IDENTIFY each retired NFL player you paid in 2005 pursuant to a
24 GLA. For purposes of this interrogatory, the term "IDENTIFY"
25 means to provide the (a) retired NFL player's full name; (b) retired
26 NFL player's address, email address and phone number; (c) exact 27 amount paid to that player in 2005; and (d) entit(y,ies) to whom 28

1                   you licensed the retired NFL player’s rights.

2                   Plaintiffs have since amended Interrogatory No. 6, as set forth in correspondence
3 between counsel, such that the term “GLA” as used in this Interrogatory is now defined to mean
4 a “standard form Group Licensing Authorization,” and that the phrase “paid ... pursuant to a
5 GLA” means retired players who received licensing-related payments from Players Inc at a time
6 when the retired player had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into any “ad 7 hoc” agreement with respect to such payments.

8                   PLAYERS INC’S RESPONSE TO AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 6

9                   Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 6 on the grounds that the phrase
10 “paid ... pursuant to a GLA” is vague and ambiguous in this context, and that Amended 11 Interrogatory No. 6 improperly calls for a legal conclusion. Players Inc further objects to 12 Amended Interrogatory No. 6 on the ground that it calls for information that is neither relevant
13 nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Specifically, 14 Amended Interrogatory No. 6 calls for information about retired players who were “paid ...
15 pursuant to a GLA” regardless of whether such standard form GLA was in the same form as the 16 GLA signed by Herbert Adderley – the only Plaintiff who asserts a claim based on having signed
17 a standard form GLA. Moreover, Amended Interrogatory No. 6 requests the “full name” and 18 “address, email address and phone number” of putative class members. Such information is 19 neither relevant nor discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure before the 20 certification of a class. See, e.g., Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 354-55
21 (1978). Players Inc further objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 6 on the ground that it is 22 unduly burdensome to determine the “exact amount” paid to each retired player within the 23 requested time period.

24                   Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing objections, Players Inc responds to 25 Amended Interrogatory No. 6 as follows. In connection with Photo File, from January 1, 2005
26 to December 31, 2005, Players Inc paid royalties to certain retired players who had standard 27 form GLAs in effect, but who had not entered into an “ad hoc” agreement with respect to such 28

1 payments. Players Inc makes no representation with respect to whether such standard form
2 GLAs were in the same form as the GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was retired
3 when he signed such standard form GLA.

4           Given the large number of royalty payments and the number of players at issue,
5 and the very small dollar amount of most of the royalty payments (the majority of the royalty 6 payments were for less than $10, and many of the royalty payments were for less than $1), it is
7 unduly burdensome for Players Inc to determine the “exact amount” so paid to these retired
8 players within the requested time period. However, Players Inc’s general practice with respect to 9 such payments was as follows.

10           Photo File reported and paid royalties to Players Inc (if any) on a quarterly basis.
11 If quarterly royalty payments to a particular retired player resulted in that retired player being 12 due $10 or more by Players Inc, then that retired player was timely paid after Players Inc
13 received and processed the quarterly payment. However, if a Photo File quarterly royalty 14 payment with respect to a particular retired player did not result in that player being due $10 or 15 more, then Players Inc would not make a payment to that retired player until the $10 threshold
16 was met. The reason for this $10 threshold was that it was administratively impractical to make 17 payments smaller than $10. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a list of royalty amounts processed
18 by Players Inc on the dates specified on the list, for individual retired players with standard form
19 GLAs (as discussed above) in effect as of the processing date. Any payments to such retired 20 players would have been processed in accordance with the general practice described above.

21           Moreover, Players Inc paid royalties in 2005 to certain additional retired players
22 who had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into an “ad hoc” agreement
23 with respect to such payments. The name of the retired player, the amount of the payment, and 24 the name of the licensee is set forth in the list attached hereto as Exhibit 4. Players Inc makes no
25 representation with respect to whether such standard form GLAs were in the same form as the 26 GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was retired when he signed such standard form 27 GLA.

28

1 AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 7 TO PLAYERS INC

2 Plaintiffs originally propounded Interrogatory No. 7 to Players Inc as follows:

3 IDENTIFY each retired NFL player you paid in 2006 pursuant to a
4 GLA. For purposes of this interrogatory, the term “IDENTIFY”
5 means to provide the (a) retired NFL player’s full name; (b) retired
6 NFL player’s address, email address and phone number; (c) exact
7 amount paid to that player in 2006; and (d) entit(y,ies) to whom 8 you licensed the retired NFL player’s rights.

9 Plaintiffs have since amended Interrogatory No. 7, as set forth in correspondence
10 between counsel, such that the term “GLA” as used in this Interrogatory is now defined to mean
11 a “standard form Group Licensing Authorization,” and that the phrase “paid ... pursuant to a 12 GLA” means retired players who received licensing-related payments from Players Inc at a time
13 when the retired player had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into any “ad 14 hoc” agreement with respect to such payments.

15 PLAYERS INC’S RESPONSE TO AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 7

16 Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 7 on the grounds that the phrase
17 “paid ... pursuant to a GLA” is vague and ambiguous in this context, and that Amended
18 Interrogatory No. 7 improperly calls for a legal conclusion. Players Inc further objects to 19 Amended Interrogatory No. 7 on the ground that it calls for information that is neither relevant
20 nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Specifically,
21 Amended Interrogatory No. 7 calls for information about retired players who were “paid ...
22 pursuant to a GLA” regardless of whether such standard form GLA was in the same form as the 23 GLA signed by Herbert Adderley – the only Plaintiff who asserts a claim based on having signed
24 a standard form GLA. Moreover, Amended Interrogatory No. 7 requests the “full name” and 25 “address, email address and phone number” of putative class members. Such information is 26 neither relevant nor discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure before the 27 certification of a class. See, e.g., Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 354-55

1 (1978). In addition, Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 7 on the ground that Mr.
2 Adderley, the only Plaintiff who asserts a claim based on a standard form GLA, had no such 3 GLA in effect in 2006 (his last standard form GLA expired on December 31, 2005). The 4 information requested in Amended Interrogatory No. 7 is therefore neither relevant nor 5 reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Finally, Players Inc 6 objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 7 on the ground that it is unduly burdensome to determine 7 the “exact amount” paid to each retired player within the requested time period.

8           Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing objections, Players Inc responds to 9 Amended Interrogatory No. 7 as follows. In connection with Photo File, from January 1, 2006
10 to December 31, 2006, Players Inc paid royalties to certain retired players who had standard
11 form GLAs in effect, but who had not entered into an “ad hoc” agreement with respect to such 12 payments. Players Inc makes no representation with respect to whether such standard form
13 GLAs were in the same form as the GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was retired
14 when he signed such standard form GLA.

15           Given the large number of royalty payments and the number of players at issue,
16 and the very small dollar amount of most of the royalty payments (the majority of the royalty 17 payments were for less than $10, and many of the royalty payments were for less than $1), it is 18 unduly burdensome for Players Inc to determine the “exact amount” so paid to these retired 19 players within the requested time period. However, Players Inc’s general practice with respect to 20 such payments was as follows.

21           Photo File reported and paid royalties to Players Inc (if any) on a quarterly basis.
22 If quarterly royalty payments to a particular retired player resulted in that retired player being
23 due $10 or more by Players Inc, then that retired player was timely paid after Players Inc
24 received and processed the quarterly payment. However, if a Photo File quarterly royalty 25 payment with respect to a particular retired player did not result in that player being due $10 or 26 more, then Players Inc would not make a payment to that retired player until the $10 threshold
27 was met. The reason for this $10 threshold was that it was administratively impractical to make 28

1 payments smaller than $10. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a list of royalty amounts processed
2 by Players Inc on the dates specified on the list, for individual retired players with standard form
3 GLAs (as discussed above) in effect as of the processing date. Any payments to such retired
4 players would have been processed in accordance with the general practice described above.

5 Moreover, Players Inc paid royalties in 2006 to certain additional retired players
6 who had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into an “ad hoc” agreement
7 with respect to such payments. The name of the retired player, the amount of the payment, and 8 the name of the licensee is set forth in the list attached hereto as Exhibit 4. Players Inc makes no
9 representation with respect to whether such standard form GLAs were in the same form as the 10 GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was retired when he signed such standard form
11 GLA.

12 AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 8 TO PLAYERS INC

13 Plaintiffs originally propounded Interrogatory No. 8 to Players Inc as follows:

14 IDENTIFY each retired NFL player you paid from January 1, 2007 15 to the date of your responses pursuant to a GLA. For purposes of 16 this interrogatory, the term “IDENTIFY” means to provide the (a)
17 retired NFL player’s full name; (b) retired NFL player’s address, 18 email address and phone number; (c) exact amount paid to that 19 player from January 1, 2007 to the date of your responses; and (d)
20 entit(y,ies) to whom you licensed the retired NFL player’s rights.

21 Plaintiffs have since amended Interrogatory No. 8, as set forth in correspondence
22 between counsel, such that the term “GLA” as used in this Interrogatory is now defined to mean
23 a “standard form Group Licensing Authorization,” and that the phrase “paid ... pursuant to a
24 GLA” means retired players who received licensing-related payments from Players Inc at a time
25 when the retired player had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not entered into any “ad 26 hoc” agreement with respect to such payments.

1 PLAYERS INC'S RESPONSE TO AMENDED INTERROGATORY NO. 8

2                   Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 8 on the grounds that the phrase
3 “paid ... pursuant to a GLA” is vague and ambiguous in this context, and that Amended
4 Interrogatory No. 8 improperly calls for a legal conclusion. Players Inc further objects to 5 Amended Interrogatory No. 8 on the ground that it calls for information that is neither relevant
6 nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Specifically,
7 Amended Interrogatory No. 8 calls for information about retired players who were “paid ...
8 pursuant to a GLA” regardless of whether such standard form GLA was in the same form as the 9 GLA signed by Herbert Adderley – the only Plaintiff who asserts a claim based on having signed
10 a standard form GLA. Moreover, Amended Interrogatory No. 8 requests the “full name” and 11 “address, email address and phone number” of putative class members. Such information is 12 neither relevant nor discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure before the 13 certification of a class. See, e.g., Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 354-55
14 (1978). In addition, Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 8 on the ground that Mr.
15 Adderley, the only Plaintiff who asserts a claim based on a Group Licensing Authorization form, 16 had no Group Licensing Authorization form in effect in 2007 (his last Group Licensing 17 Authorization form expired on December 31, 2005). The information requested in Amended 18 Interrogatory No. 8 is therefore neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the 19 discovery of admissible evidence. Finally, Players Inc objects to Amended Interrogatory No. 8 20 on the ground that it is unduly burdensome to determine the “exact amount” paid to each retired 21 player within the requested time period.

22                   Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing objections, Players Inc responds to 23 Amended Interrogatory No. 8 as follows. Players Inc has paid royalties from January 1, 2007 to 24 November 15, 2007, the date of the filing of the Third Amended Complaint in this action, to 25 certain additional retired players who had a standard form GLA in effect, but who had not 26 entered into an “ad hoc” agreement with respect to such payments. The name of the retired 27 player, the amount of the payment, and the name of the licensee is set forth in the list attached

1 hereto as Exhibit 4. Players Inc makes no representation with respect to whether such standard 2 form GLAs were in the same form as the GLA signed by Adderley, or whether the player was 3 retired when he signed such standard form GLA.
