STIPULATION REGARDING TESTIMONY OF JOEL LINZNER

1 Defendants National Football League Players Association and National Football
2 League Players Incorporated d/b/a/ Players Inc (collectively, "Defendants"), and Plaintiffs
3 Bernard Paul Parrish, Herbert Anthony Adderley, and Walter Roberts III (collectively, 4 "Plaintiffs"), hereby respectfully submit this Stipulation regarding the timing of testimony of 5 third-party witness Joel Linzner of Electronic Arts, Inc., ("EA") and the authenticity and/or 6 admissibility of specific evidence relating to EA:

7 STIPULATION

8 WHEREAS, Joel Linzner, an employee of Electronic Arts, Inc. ("EA"), has been 9 deposed in this matter;

10 WHEREAS, Mr. Linzner is within the subpoena power of this Court and has been 11 subpoenaed by Plaintiffs to appear at the trial beginning October 20 and to testify during 12 Plaintiffs' case in chief;

13 WHEREAS, counsel for EA has advised counsel for the parties that Mr. Linzner
14 has a long scheduled trip to Europe planned for the week of October 20, but will return on 15 October 27; and

16 WHEREAS, Mr. Linzner is identified on Defendants' Pretrial Disclosures as a 17 witness Defendants expect to call.

18 NOW THEREFORE the parties, through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate 19 that:

- 20 (1) Plaintiffs shall withdraw their subpoena on Mr. Linzner requiring his 21 appearance on October 20;
- 22 (2) Plaintiffs shall withdraw any and all other subpoenas previously served 23 upon EA (including the subpoena requiring EA to produce certain 24 documents and things on October 20), and Plaintiffs agree that they will 25 not seek to issue any other subpoena directed at EA or any EA witness in 26 connection with their case in chief in this matter, with the parties reserving
27 their respective rights in connection with Plaintiffs' ability to call an EA 28 witness in a rebuttal case, if any;
- (3) Notwithstanding the above, Plaintiffs shall serve Mr. Linzner with a new subpoena requiring his appearance at 8:00 a.m. on October 29, 2008;

- (4) The parties agree that Mr. Linzner’s testimony may be taken out of order, and Plaintiffs may call him as a witness on October 29, and the parties shall work with the Court to schedule his testimony efficiently on that day. Mr. Linzner shall be called as a witness only once during the trial, and Plaintiffs may examine him first, but Defendants' examination of Mr. Linzner shall not be limited by the scope of Plaintiffs' examination and may cover any subject that is otherwise permissible;

- (5) Defendants agree that Plaintiffs may read or play video excerpts from the deposition of Mr. Linzner during their case in chief as though he were “unavailable” under Rule 804(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Evidence, and Defendants shall be allowed to counter-designate excerpts;

- (6) EA has agreed to provide to Plaintiffs, two days after the complete execution of this stipulation, a copy of the original May 31, 2001, letter received by EA from LaShun Lawson attached as Exhibit “A” hereto (PI 131529-30), and Defendants agree to the authenticity of such original letter, and, without waiving any other objection Defendants may have as to the admissibility of such original letter, and without waiving Plaintiffs’ right to seek to offer such letter into evidence in their case in chief, that such original letter constitutes statements by an employee of a party within the scope of her employment within the meaning of FRE 801(d)(2)(D);

- (7) Defendants agree to the authenticity of a document attached as Exhibit “B” hereto (EA000153-56) evidencing an email chain between and among EA personnel and employees of the Defendants spanning from June 2005 to August 2005, and, without waiving any other objection Defendants may have as to the admissibility of all or any portion of such document, and without waiving Plaintiffs’ right to seek to offer such email chain into evidence in their case in chief, that the portions of the email chain in the document that constitute emails from LaShun Lawson constitute statements by an employee of a party within the scope of her employment within the meaning of FRE 801(d)(2)(D), and that the portions of the email chain in the document that constitute emails from EA personnel were communications made within the scope of such person’s duties for EA;

- (8) Defendants agree that the list of Madden NFL games attached as Exhibit “C” are authentic and admissible in evidence and that such games may be used by Plaintiffs at any time during their case in chief.

to the
Stipulation Regarding Testimony Of Joel Linzner

May 31, 2001

Jeremy Strauser
Electronic Arts - Tiburon
2301 Lucien Way, Suite 395
Maitland, FL 32751

Dear Jeremy:

The following is a detailed explanation of the approved use of retired players for the upcoming video games per our discussion at E3. The Addendum that was signed last July was a three year Agreement that granted Electronic Arts the right to use the images and identities of the players listed in Attachments A and B (both documents were sent with the Addendum). For all retired players that are not listed in either Attachment A or B, their identity must be altered so that it cannot be recognized. Regarding paragraph 2 of the pending License Agreement between Electronic Arts and Players Inc, a players' identity is defined as his name, likeness (including, without limitation, number), picture, photograph, voice, facsimile signature and/or biographical information. Hence, any and all players not listed in Attachment A or B cannot be represented in Madden 2002 with the number that the player actually wore, and must be scrambled.

Along those same lines, the only active players that can be included in the licensed product, are those players who have given their licensing rights to Players Inc. Substituting a players name with their jersey number is not acceptable. If a player has not given his rights to Players Inc, his identity, as defined above, cannot be used within the game. If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me at (202) 496-2865.

Sincerely,

LaShun Lawson

So as we discussed, you can do:

NFL Player, "NFL" as his team, the correct year and the correct record.
No name, no team, no uniform number.

I assume we can still do Team and Year, but we need to remove name and number.

We can refer to Dan Marino as "Dolphins QB", but for year it will be left blank.

Does this work?

Subject: NFL Record Book (in Madden) question

We are designing a feature in Madden where there will be a living record book with all the pre-set NFL records, by game, by season and by career.
As you progress in your career you can break these records with players in the game, but from a default starting point we would like to use the real NFL records. Obviously many records are held by players no longer in the league. Our legal group has come back and said that we can legally display this information, including the record holder's name and info since it is factual real-world data. However before proceeding I wanted to run this by you.

What do you think? I know that Players INC doesn't want us to include any retired players "in the game" - but in this case given that it is factual, real world information that is readily available, our hope is that you would agree with us that this particular feature is made much stronger by including the text display of the record data. To confirm, this is text display only as you would see in an actual record book, newspaper or online.

Let me know when you can.

Thanks.
