IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JONATHAN MILES,

Plaintiff,

v.

U.S. GOVERNMENT, et al.

Defendants.

No. C 07-01092 JSW

ORDER DENYING REQUEST TO REOPEN

On February 22, 2007, Plaintiff filed his complaint in this action. On May 5, 2007, the Honorable Martin J. Jenkins dismissed Plaintiff's complaint, with leave to amend, and denied Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis. Plaintiff was ordered to file an amended complaint within sixty days of the Order. Plaintiff did not file an amended complaint. Instead, on August 6, 2007, Plaintiff filed a notice of appeal. On September 14, 2007, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit dismissed Plaintiff's appeal for lack of jurisdiction, and the mandate issued on November 9, 2007.

In the interim, on October 2, 2007, Plaintiff sent a letter requesting that this case be sent "to Houston Texas Federal Clerks Office to be considered by the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans." (See Docket 11.) On December 13, 2007, Plaintiff sent a letter inquiring as to the status of his case, advised the Court of his new address, and stated "is anything required on my part?" (Docket No. 14.)

On February 15, 2008, this matter was reassigned to the undersigned, and on February 22, 2008, the Court issued an Order stating that if Plaintiff wished to pursue his case, he was required to file an amended complaint by March 28, 2008.

On February 28, 2008, Plaintiff submitted a letter indicating that he wished to “drop his case in the San Francisco district.” (Docket No. 17.) On March 4, 2008, the Court, in accordance with Plaintiff’s request, dismissed this matter.

On or about August 18, 2008, Plaintiff submitted a letter requesting that this case be reopened.¹ Plaintiff does not explain why he seeks to revoke his request to voluntarily dismiss this case. Nor has Plaintiff ever complied with the Court’s original directive that to pursue this case, he would be required to file an amended complaint. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s request to reopen this matter is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: September 3, 2008

JEFFREY S. WHITE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

¹ Although the letter references the instant case, it was apparently docketed in Case 06-80190-MISC. The Clerk is directed to docket the letter in this case.
