RELEASE

If the Court approves the proposed settlement, it will enter a Judgment that will dismiss the Action on the merits and with prejudice as to all Settlement Class Members. All Class Members who do not validly and timely request to be excluded from the proposed settlement will be forever barred from prosecuting their own lawsuits and shall be deemed, on behalf of themselves and their heirs, assigns, and successors, to have fully released and forever discharged the “Released Parties” (as defined below) from all “Released Claims” (as defined below).

“Released Parties” means Verizon Wireless and any and all of its present or past heirs, executors, estates, administrators, predecessors, successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, associates, affiliates, employers, employees, agents, consultants, insurers, directors, managing directors, officers, partners, principals, members, attorneys, accountants, financial and other advisors, investment bankers, underwriters, shareholders, lenders, auditors, investment advisors, legal representatives, successors in interest, assigns and Persons, firms, trusts, corporations, officers, directors, other individuals or entities in which Verizon Wireless has a controlling interest or which is related to or affiliated with it, or any other representatives of any of these Persons and entities. This definition is not intended to include any billing intermediary (also known as “aggregators”), such as Verisign, Inc., m-Qube, Inc., m-Blox, Inc., or third-party mobile content provider.

“Released Claims” means all claims (including Unknown Claims), demands, rights, liabilities or causes of action, in law or in equity, accrued or unaccrued, fixed or contingent, direct, individual or representative, of every nature and description whatsoever, whether based on federal, state, local, statutory or common law or any other law, rule or regulation, including the law of any jurisdiction outside the United States, belonging to Plaintiffs and their present or past heirs, executors, estates, administrators, predecessors, successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, associates, affiliates, employers, employees, agents, consultants, insurers, directors, managing directors, officers, partners, principals, members, attorneys, accountants, financial and other advisors, investment bankers, underwriters, lenders, and any other representatives of any of these Persons and entities (including, without limitation, any claims, whether direct, derivative, representative or in any other capacity, arising under federal, state, local, statutory or common law or any other law, rule or regulation, including the law of any jurisdiction outside of the United States), against the Released Parties, or any of them, arising out of the facts, transactions, events, matters, occurrences, acts, disclosures, statements, misrepresentations, omissions or failures to act that were or could have been alleged or asserted in the Action, or that relate in any way to any violation of law, any misstatement or omission, any breach of duty, any negligence or fraud or any other alleged wrongdoing or misconduct relating to Disputed Charges, as defined in Section 1 of the Instructions above.

By operation of the Final Judgment, all Settlement Class Members shall be deemed to have waived any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by § 1542 of the California Civil Code or any comparable statutory or common law provision of any other jurisdiction with respect to the Released Claims. Section 1542 reads as follows:

Certain Claims Not Affected By General Release: A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor.

1 Although the releases granted under the Agreement are not general releases, the Settlement
2 Class Members nonetheless acknowledge that they are waiving the protections of § 1542 and
3 of any comparable statutory or common law provision of any other jurisdiction.
