Re: Case No. 07-CV-1658; Oracle Corporation, et al., v. SAP AG et al.
U. S. District Court, Northern District of California, San Francisco Division

Dear Ms. House:

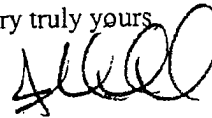

Defendants have discovered the inadvertent production of two privileged documents that have been produced to Plaintiffs from the files of TomorrowNow custodians. Pursuant to paragraph 15 of the Stipulated Protective Order, Plaintiffs have an obligation to promptly return the documents and all copies thereof to which the claim of inadvertent production has been made. Plaintiffs may not use these documents for any purpose other than using information concerning the documents in connection with a motion to compel.

- TN-OR00868518 to TN-OR00868519; and
- TN-OR01688352 to TN-OR01688353.

Notably, these documents are identical to several documents that were the subject of Defendants' inadvertent production letter of May 29, 2008. Defendants will promptly provide a placeholder tiff image and the accompanying load file which should be used to replace this document.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Jason McDonell
