Mia - I don't know if you ever worked for PS or JDE, but if not, then you'll probably want to do a short briefing w/Scott Trainor to understand the positioning. It's really not a "contract" discussion from a negotiations perspective, but a "based upon my experience" conversation where we address the rights and terms of the J.D. Edwards license that makes TN consulting possible. If you are not comfortable having that level of discussion, then PLEASE throw up a red-flag and we'll get someone whom is. This is a very big deal for TN.

Bob -

Thank you for the clarification. Since I'm coming into this midstream, I wanted to be prepared. Please let me know how I can be of assistance.

Thanks again,
Mia

Mia - To clarify, we have not yet submitted an agreement. The request is for a discussion about the "rights" that a customer has under their PeopleSoft / J. D. Edwards agreement that ALLOWS them to have TomorrowNow perform services on JDE.

So, this is NOT a contract review of TN or SAP paper. This is a conversation for someone whom is familiar with the PS/JDE agreements. Make sense?

If not, then call me.

Hi Bob,

Please contact John Youri, who is the new Director of Contracts for the west. He will assign a contracts person and he/she will negotiate the deal and, if necessary, escalate any issues to me.

Tom - It looks like we may need to have another one of those discussions about how TN works...nothing unusual, and probably 30 minutes like the last one we did with NWM Life. Are you up for it?

This is an SAP prospect in the west, so I wanted to get your advice on process. Do we need to bring anyone else into the mix?

RE: TomorrowNow

Scott

When last you and I spoke with Bob Geib, you offered the possibility of a "lawyer-to-lawyer" conversation to discuss our concerns in the area of third-party support for our JDE/World implementation. Now that we have a MNDA in place, and the Gallo legal folks have done a review of our Oracle documents, I'm wondering if you would still be open to such a conversation? Let me know if this is a possibility and we'll figure out a way to coordinate schedules.

I hope all is well in you world and appreciate your continued efforts...

Thanks

Jim

Hi Shelly,

As Jim Young may have mentioned to you, we are a subsidiary of SAP. As I understand it, the SAP/Gallo NDA is currently in the final stage of review. I will coordinate our legal with the SAP legal get a copy of the final agreement. We will sign an agreement with the same language as the SAP agreement, as the TomorrowNow company. I believe that is what Jim Young had requested.

Please let me know if that is acceptable. If so, please send the agreement with the SAP language and TomorrowNow Inc as the cosigner.

Please feel free to give me a call if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,

Hi Scott,

I have been asked to send you our Mutual Non Disclosure Agreement to allow for further discussions relating to your products and services and Gallo's requirements. Please review the attached MND and send me an email confirmation. Once the confirmation has been received I will prepare two sets of the document that Gallo will sign and then forward to you for counter signature.

Thank You
