The conference call number for the meeting tomorrow is 888-967-2253 Code 898293

There will NOT be a Web Conference. I will be presenting only one short PowerPoint and I am attaching that here.

Regards,
Rick

Rick,

Can you please send out a Conference call number as well as a Webconference ID (if you are going to be presenting slides) for those who will be attending remotely ?

Thank you.
-Padma.

Key Third Party Competitors

□ Third party vendors

- TomorrowNow-SAP (Threat Level – High)
 - Started as Enterprise (PeopleSoft) Support
 - Recently expanded into E1/World
 - President is former JDEdwards VP of Sales in EMEA
 - Head of World/E1 support is former JDE Support Exec from EMEA.
- Versytec (Threat level – low)
 - Primarily World
- Conexus Partners (Threat level – Low to Medium)
 - Primarily World/E1 (XE Support)
- Klee & Associates (Threat level – Low)
 - Primarily World

Key Customer Issues

- Fusion/Product Roadmap
- Cost/ROI of support
 - Utilize limited support
 - Tax and regulatory updates available from third party providers which we may not provide
 - Fusion perceived to be new implementation. Stable release allows them to “wait and see”
 - Cost savings of third party outweigh risks. They can “bank” the delta in support costs and repurchase in their own timing. (Lexmark)
- Database strategy for Non-Oracle DB
- Expiration of XE support in 2007
- Limited upgrade plans
 - Highly satisfied with product
 - Risk Averse

PeopleSoft Risk Mitigation Strategy

□ Proactive/Strategic

- Proactive customer visits to key customers identified “At Risk”
- Customer Retention strategy session week of July 29th.
 - Lead by Rick Cummins, Chris Madsen, Robbin Henslee
 - Product teams (E1/World/Enterprise)
 - Strategy team
 - Factual / customer facing feedback
- Monthly customer strategy calls by product line

□ Tactical

- Weekly “At Risk” Review
- Link to “Better Together” program with license sales
- Database build for identified “At Risk”
