Good cause exists to support this stipulation and the request that this Court grant the accompanying proposed order. Due to the holiday season, Farr has not had sufficient time to prepare a response, and therefore requires an additional ten days to do so. There have not been any prior requests to extend the time to respond to the Second Amended Complaint. Moreover, the parties do not know of any other deadlines or events set in this case, and therefore conclude that the requested ten day extension will not have any other effect on the schedule of this case.

This stipulation and proposed order, if it is granted, avoids the necessity for Farr to file, and for this Court to adjudicate, an administrative motion under Local Rule 7-11 in this regard. Therefore, the parties respectfully request that the Court grant their proposed order.
