Case No.: USDC 07 2211 JL

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER
REGARDING DISPOSITIVE MOTION
DATES

16 1. WHEREAS, the motion for summary judgment or in the alternative for partial summary
17 judgment has been taken under submission by the Court on November 18, 2009;

18 2. WHEREAS, the parties agree that at the hearing for the motion for summary judgment or in the 19 alternative for partial summary judgment of November 18, 2009, the Court indicated that, at least 20 initially, the Court was inclined to grant at least some portion of the motion for summary judgment;

21 3. WHEREAS, the parties agree that the pretrial submission due on November 25, 2009 are linked
22 very closely to the actual causes of action that will be heard at trial, such as submissions related to jury
23 instructions, motions in limine as to specific evidence that relate to specific causes of action, damages
24 calculations, and documents that will be used as evidence;

25 4. WHEREAS, the parties agree that in order to comply with the pretrial submission deadline of 26 November 25, 2009, there is a potential for a significant amount of attorney's fees and costs expended
27 by both sides over the next week that may prove to be unnecessary;
28

STIPULATION AND ORDER

1 5. WHEREAS, the parties are scheduled to conduct deposition of expert witnesses shortly, and the
2 fees for their time are significant;

3 6. WHEREAS, the parties agree that an extension of time to submit the pretrial statement and other
4 submissions will both limit potentially wasted resources of the parties and allow the parties to submit
5 more focused papers and filings once the summary judgment motion ruling is fully known to the parties;

6
7 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between the parties that:

8
9 1. The parties pretrial submissions should be due six court days after the Court issues an order
10 following Defendant's motion for summary judgment or in the alternative for partial summary
11 judgment;

12 2. Oppositions to motions in limine should be due December 15, 2009;

13 3. Expert discovery shall be concluded on or before December 11, 2009;

14 4. Pretrial Conference shall be held December 23 at 11:00 a.m.
