SCOTT A. KAMBER is the Managing Partner of Kamber & Associates, LLC and specializes in technology-related litigation and representing individuals and businesses domestically, as well as in complex international matters. Mr. Kamber has an extremely diverse practice before federal and state courts throughout the United States and arbitration panels abroad, with clients ranging from individuals to multinational corporations to classes of consumers and investors. Experienced in law and business, Mr. Kamber has a proven track record of addressing a client's needs in an individualized manner that is sensitive to budgetary requirements.

Presently, Kamber & Associates serves as lead or co-lead counsel in In re Netflix Antitrust Litigation; In re Network Commerce Securities Litigation; In re ATI HDCP Litigation; and In re Power Plug Litigation (Hewlett Packard). Mr. Kamber and his firm regularly serve in leadership roles in numerous litigations including suits on behalf of shareholders, consumers and private corporations in the United States and abroad. Mr. Kamber has served as lead counsel and in other leadership roles for numerous class actions that have achieved significant results, including In re Sony BMG CD Technologies (ground-breaking settlement providing injunctive relief and refunds to customers who purchased music CD's which could compromise computer security); Wormley v. GeoCities (consumer class action for privacy violations that is believed to be the first internet privacy case to recover a benefit for impacted class members); In re Starlink Growers (represented sub-class of farmers who grew Starlink in a consolidated settlement of federal class action valued in excess of $100 million); In re Loch Harris (derivative action that successfully obtained dissolution of corporation and distribution of assets to shareholders); In re Command Systems (securities class action in which participating shareholders recovered over 80% of their losses); and In re WebTV (consumer class action for false advertising). In addition to these commercial litigations, Mr. Kamber has been involved in the efforts of African torture victims to bring their persecutors to justice under the Alien Tort Claims Act and has achieved significant decisions for his clients before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and the Southern District of New York. One such result, Cabiri v. Ghana, 165 F.3d 193 (1999), is a leading Second Circuit case under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act.

Mr. Kamber graduated cum laude from University of California, Hastings College of the Law in 1991 where he was Order of the Coif, Articles Editor for Hastings Constitutional Law Quarterly and a member of the Moot Court Board. Mr. Kamber graduated with University and Departmental Honors from The Johns Hopkins University in 1986. Mr. Kamber has extensive courtroom experience and has tried over 20 cases to verdict. Prior to founding Kamber & Associates, LLC, Mr. Kamber represented both plaintiffs and defendants in a wide range of commercial litigation. Mr. Kamber is admitted to practice in the State of New York as well as the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and Eighth Circuit, and the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. In addition, Mr. Kamber is well-versed in the procedures and practice of numerous arbitration forums, both domestic and international. Prior to practicing law, Mr. Kamber was a financial consultant.

STUART D. WECHSLER is Of Counsel to Kamber & Associates. The efforts of Mr. Wechsler in the area of securities litigation have received considerable judicial comment. U.S. District Court Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein commented in Doney v. Command Systems, (98 Civ. 3279), in an opinion dated August 10, 1999, "I don't think it needs my comment to note that, Mr. Wechsler, you are a senior and most respected and most competent member of the securities class action bar. I would take it as a given your hours are worth the rates that you charge and that the hours that you have put in reflect the efficiency with which you work." In a report dated May 23, 1977, in Bucher v. Shumway, 76 Civ. 2420 (S.D.N.Y.), United States Magistrate Leonard Bernikow stated that "Stuart Wechsler . . . is a leading expert in securities class action litigation." Mr. Wechsler also led the team of attorneys that successfully prosecuted the class action, Parklane Hosiery Co., Inc. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322 (1979), to a landmark decision in federal civil procedure. He was also the responsible partner in Van Gemert v. Boeing, one of the earliest actions maintained as a class action under the then newly amended Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and one of the very few securities class actions ever to go to trial and judgment. Moreover, Mr. Wechsler played an integral role in obtaining a landmark Supreme Court decision in an important phase of that action. See Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472 (1980).

Mr. Wechsler was admitted to the bar 1958, New York; Supreme Court; U.S. Court of Appeals, Second, Third and Fifth Circuits; U.S. District Court, District of Arizona; U.S. District Court, Western District of Michigan.
