RECITAL

On August 4, 2008, the parties participated in a mediation before Daniel Bowling and reached a settlement agreement.

On September 18, 2008, the Court issued an order dismissing this case without prejudice, and with leave to reinstate on or before 90 days for the purpose of proceeding with the litigation in the event the parties did not complete the settlement prior to that date.

On December 17, 2008, the Court granted the parties' stipulated request to extend the time to complete the settlement to January 30, 2009.

Since the extension of time was granted, the parties have worked diligently to finalize the settlement, but the process has taken longer than expected.

The primary reason for the delay continues to be protracted negotiations with NCLN20, a former party to this litigation, regarding the language of a mutual release of claims between NCLN20 and the remaining defendants.

The parties and NCLN20 are now on the verge reaching agreement on language of the mutual release, but need some additional time.

The parties further agree that it would be a waste of the Court's resources for the plaintiff Raghbir Singh to reinstate his complaint in order to avoid dismissal with prejudice.

The parties believe that the settlement will be finalized no later than March 31, 2009.

STIPULATION

For the foregoing reasons, plaintiff Singh and defendants Linda Hauser, Mario Canton, and John Morgan, through their undersigned counsel, stipulate and agree to extend the time to complete the settlement from January 30, 2009 to March 31, 2009.
