UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE
COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

ROBERT OLINS, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No.: C 07-6423 MMC

JOINT STIPULATION RE DECEMBER 18, 2015
STATUS CONFERENCE; ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

On November 4, 2015, the Court held a conference call with the parties regarding defendant Robert Olins' Motion to Stay SEC Civil Contempt Hearing Pending Resolution of Criminal Proceeding in the Southern District of New York ("Motion to Stay") and defendant Olins' request to hear the Motion to Stay on shortened time. At the conclusion of the conference call, the Court granted defendant Olins' request to hear the Motion to Stay on Shortened Time and granted the Motion to Stay.

1 During the November 4, 2015 telephonic hearing, the Court set a status conference on
2 the SEC's Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Robert Olins Should Not Be Held
3 In Contempt of Court (hereinafter the "SEC's Motion") on December 18, 2015, at 9:30 a.m. to 4 receive an update regarding the criminal case filed against defendant Olins in the Southern 5 District of New York. The Court also request a joint statement regarding status to be filed on 6 or before December 11, 2015.

7 During the November 4, 2015 hearing, defense counsel for Mr. Olins represented that 8 the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York and the SEC were engaged in 9 on-going discussions with Mr. Olins regarding his criminal matter. At that time, the parties
10 agreed to have continued discussions and that an indictment would not be yet filed against Mr.
11 Olins (Mr. Olins has been charged thus far by way of criminal complaint).

12 As of today's date, undersigned defense counsel has been told that although progress
13 has been made, discussions between the prosecution and defense continue and an indictment
14 has not yet been filed. The parties have tentatively agreed to move the December 14, 2015
15 deadline date for an indictment to sometime in January or February 2016. It appears that 16 more information will be available sometime in January or February 2016.

17 As such, any status conference on the instant matter and the SEC's Motion is 18 premature and the parties jointly request and stipulate that the December 18, 2015 status
19 conference be continued to February 12, 2016, at 9:30 a.m. The parties will submit an 20 additional joint statement, on or before, February 5, 2016, advising the Court of the status of 21 the criminal case in the Southern District of New York.
