UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE
COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

ROBERT OLINS, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No.: C 07-6423 MMC

JOINT STIPULATION RE FEBRUARY 12, 2016
STATUS CONFERENCE; ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

On November 4, 2015, the Court granted defendant Robert Olins' Motion to Stay SEC Civil Contempt Hearing Pending Resolution of Criminal Proceeding in the Southern District of New York ("Motion to Stay") and defendant Olins' request to hear the Motion to Stay on shortened time. However, the Court also set a status conference on the SEC's Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Robert Olins Should Not Be Held In Contempt of Court (hereinafter the "SEC's Motion") to receive an update regarding the criminal case filed against

1 defendant Olins in the Southern District of New York. That continued status conference is
2 currently set for February 12, 2016, and the Court also requested that a joint status statement
3 be filed one week prior.

4 At the last status statement filed before the Court, a criminal indictment had not yet
5 been filed against Mr. Olins. However, a criminal indictment has now been filed against Mr.
6 Olins in the Southern District of New York. Undersigned defense counsel has been told that
7 the criminal prosecutor mentioned the filing of a superseding indictment, but that no such filing
8 has yet occurred. Defense counsel also reports that settlement discussions between the 9 prosecution and defense continue in the criminal matter. The next court date in the criminal
10 matter is set for March 22, 2016.

11
12 It is the parties' position that any status conference on the instant matter and the SEC's
13 Motion is premature and the parties jointly request and stipulate that the February 12, 2016
14 status conference be continued to April 8, 2016, at 9:30 a.m. The parties will submit an 15 additional joint statement, on or before, April 1, 2016, advising the Court of the status of the 16 criminal case in the Southern District of New York.
