STIPULATION AND ORDER
RE: RESCHEDULING

23 The parties agree, subject to the Court’s approval, to change the hearing date for their
24 dispositive motions from May 13, 2010 to June 24, 2010. If the hearing date is changed to June
25 24, 2010, then the last date for filing dispositive motions will be May 20, 2010; the oppositions
26 will be due on June 3; and the replies will be due on June 10, 2010.

27 ///

28 ///

1 The rescheduling was initially requested by the United States, because due to an error the
2 undersigned Assistant United States Attorney incorrectly calendared the filing date for
3 dispositive motions. Counsel for claimant, David Michael, had no objection to the rescheduling
4 of the hearing on the dispositive motions, but the first date that he was available for a hearing is
5 June 3, 2010 because he is scheduled to begin a criminal trial out-of-state on May 18, 2010.
6 After the parties filed an initial stipulation to reschedule, the courtroom clerk suggested that the 7 calendar on June 3 already had a number of matters scheduled, but offered June 17. Because Mr.
8 Michael begins another trial on June 15, he suggested June 24 or July 1 for a hearing date and the 9 courtroom clerk agreed that June 24 is available. Accordingly, the parties agree that the hearing
10 on the dispositive motions be rescheduled for June 24, 2010 at 10:00 a.m.
