IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

STEVEN ROTH,	No	C 08-02156 VRW
Plaintiff,
v		ORDER
LOOS & COMPANY, INC and SEISMIC SOLUTIONS, INC, Defendants.

On July 30, 2009, plaintiff Steven Roth moved the court to seal his opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment. Doc #71. Plaintiff's motion, required by stipulated protective order (Doc #30), was based on his understanding that defendants had designated or otherwise indicated that certain portions of his motion and documents used in support of his motion were confidential.

As required by LR 79-5(d), defendants filed a declaration (Doc #82) in support of sealing Exhibits D and E attached to the declaration of H Michael Brucker (Doc ##84-85). Defendants previously designated Exhibits D and E as attorney's eyes only under the stipulated protective order because the documents contain

1 competitively sensitive information, including pricing, customer
2 lists and sales volume. Doc #82.

3 At this time, disclosures of this information may
4 arguably result in competitive harm to the defendants.

5 Accordingly, the motion for a sealing order is GRANTED. Exhibits D
6 and E to the Brucker declaration shall be filed under seal.
