Re: RealDVD

Dear Mr. Kimball:

We have been retained by Disney, Fox, Paramount, Sony Pictures, Universal Studios and Warner Bros. ("the Companies") in connection with RealNetworks' planned distribution of "RealDVD" software, which we understand RealNetworks plans to start distributing as early as September 30. We maintain that RealDVD is designed and intended to avoid, bypass or otherwise impair the access control and copy-protection measures embedded on commercially released DVDs containing the Companies' motion picture and television content.

The Companies firmly believe that RealDVD, if launched into commerce, will result in rapid and widespread violation of their rights. We intend to file a lawsuit at the first opportunity on September 30 in federal court in Los Angeles to stop the unlawful distribution and sale of RealDVD. In order to prevent that irreparable injury pending a prompt and orderly adjudication of our clients' claims, we call upon RealNetworks to cease and desist from its planned launch until the Companies' motion to enjoin such distribution is determined and to provide us with certain information, as described below.

1. Will RealNetworks agree not to distribute and sell RealDVD until at least October 28? This schedule will permit the parties expeditiously to brief a request for immediate injunctive relief. It will also permit the Court to have sufficient time to consider the parties' submissions and, if it desires, to hold a hearing. We propose the following schedule:

- (a) The Companies shall file and serve their opening motion papers on Tuesday, September 30;
- (b) RealNetworks shall file and serve its opposition papers on Tuesday, October 7;
- (c) The Companies shall file and serve their reply papers on Tuesday, October 14; and
- (d) We will jointly request that the Court set our motion for hearing during the week of October 20 on a date and time convenient to the Court.

2. In order to permit the proper framing of the relevant legal issues and to advance the prompt adjudication of this matter, please respond to the following:

- (a) Please describe the extent to which, if the Court were to enjoin the distribution, sale and use of RealDVD after copies of the software had already been distributed to computer users, RealNetworks will have the ability, without any action by the end-user, to disable all copies of the RealDVD product that have been distributed prior thereto, thereby eliminating end-users' access to any copies of copy-protected DVDs previously created using RealDVD?
- (b) Please provide us with contact information for the person we should contact to arrange for service and coordination of contacts with the Court.

Because RealNetworks has indicated that it intends to launch RealDVD by the end of this month, please provide a response to these questions by the close of business tomorrow. This letter in no way constitutes a waiver of any rights, remedies, claims, or defenses, legal or equitable, that the Companies may have, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,
