1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, Defendant The Original Talk Radio Network,
3 Inc., sued herein as Original Talk Radio Network, Inc. (“OTRN”), respectfully requests that the 4 Court take judicial notice of the following in support of its Motion for Summary Judgment:

- 5 • Exhibit A: A true and correct copy of the letter delivered by counsel for OTRN
6 addressed to YouTube’s “DMCA Complaints” on September 29, 2008.
- 7 • Exhibit B: A true and correct copy of Plaintiff Brave New Films 501(c)(4)’s website
8 posting at NoSavage.org entitled “MICHAEL SAVAGE TRIES TO CENSOR BRAVE
9 NEW FILMS,” found at: <http://nosavage.org/censored/index.php>.
- 10 • Exhibit C: A true and correct copy of the Los Angeles Times website post entitled 11 “Brave New Films sues Michael Savage over YouTube takedown,” posted on October 12 10, 2008, at: <http://latimesblogs.latimes.com/webscout/2008/10/brave-new-films.html>.

13
14 II. ARGUMENT

15 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 provides that a court may take judicial notice of a fact “not 16 subject to reasonable dispute [and] . . . capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to 17 sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). A court may 18 take judicial notice “at any stage of the proceeding,” including in ruling on a motion for 19 summary judgment. Fed. R. Evid. 201(f); see Hunt v. Check Recovery Sys., 478 F. Supp. 2d
20 1157, 1160-61 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (taking judicial notice on a motion for summary judgment). The 21 Court may take judicial notice of a website maintained publicly on the World Wide Web, the 22 contents of which are readily ascertainable and widely disseminated. See e.g., Rearden
23 LLC v. Rearden Commerce, Inc., --- F. Supp. 2d ---, No. 06-7367, 2009 WL 276099, at *17 n.3
24 (N.D. Cal., Jan. 27, 2009) (“The court takes judicial notice of contents of this website and other 25 websites cited herein pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201.”); Caldwell v. Caldwell, 420 F.
26 Supp. 2d 1102, 1105 n.3 (N.D. Cal. 2006) (granting judicial notice of the UC Berkeley Museum
27 of Paleontology website and a portion of that site), aff’d, 545 F.3d 1126 (9th Cir. 2008); 28 Coremetrics Inc. v. Atomic Park.com, LLC, 370 F. Supp. 2d 1013, 1021 (N.D. Cal. 2005) (taking judicial notice of content on AtomicPark’s website); Cairns v. Franklin Mint Co., 107 F. Supp.

1 2d 1212, 1216 (C.D. Cal. 2000) (taking judicial notice of pages on Warhol Museum's website),
2 aff'd, 292 F.3d 1139 (9th Cir. 2000).

4 III. CONCLUSION

5 This Court may appropriately take judicial notice of the document and website content
6 designated above as Exhibits A, B, and C.

Shock jock Michael Savage is a bully. He derides, demeans, and distorts those who don't agree with his hate-filled, right-wing agenda, and when that fails, he files lawsuits. Now, Savage has tried to silence Brave New Films -- this bully has pushed us too far.

Here's what happened: Last Thursday night, YouTube removed over 300 of our videos from their site and disabled our account, including our highly popular Real McCain and FOX Attacks series. They didn't restore the account until Friday afternoon. We were furious to discover that our entire account was disabled over one unjust copyright complaint from Michael Savage and the Original Talk Radio Network, Inc., regarding a video we made eight months ago titled "Michael Savage Hates Muslims" -- a video that fell well within the terms of fair use of the material.

Here's what we're doing: On Friday, Brave New Films filed a lawsuit against Savage for his effort to suppress and silence us. Thanks to help from the Stanford Law School's Fair Use Project, we will take the fight right back to Savage and the Original Talk Radio Network, Inc.

Here's how you can help: Sign up to become a Savage Watcher. Help us be on the lookout for more of Savage's harmful behavior that you can report back to us, and get the latest on our No Savage campaign as we escalate this battle. Then, take the video Savage tried to censor and spread it far and wide; if we can't get it back on YouTube, then we can post it on blogs and networking sites like Digg to makes sure people continue to see it. Let's stop the savage behavior once and for all!

Instead of letting Savage continue to step all over our rights, values, and the U.S. Constitution, let's stand up to this savage behavior once and for all!

At least Savage is not afraid of speaking his mind! So many of us are to afraid to speak up, trapped in this politically correct society where any act of American Pride is sqashed for fear of offending someone. I find it Ironic that you are fighting for your cause of "Free Speech" by trying to censor someone. God I love the logic of the extrem left!!!

Brave New Films and Michael Savage have one thing in common... the constitutionally protected right to voice an opinion. Of all the forms of speech, political speech must receive the greatest protection of all. Hence what constitutes "Fair Use" under copyright law must be interpreted as broadly as possible when it comes to political speech. Keep it up Robert Greenwald.

ironically michael savage denies any involvement in asking for the video to be removed. it probably helps his campaign to protect our language culture and borders to have the audio of this clip played to anyone who cares enough to listen. thanks for promoting the american values that savage so gallantly upholds but please leave out the senseless spin.

Brave New Films sues Michael Savage over YouTube takedown

04:42 PM PT, Oct 10 2008

Brave New Films, the Web video production company run by liberal filmmaker Robert Greenwald ("Outfoxed," Walmart: The High Cost of Low Price"), is suing conservative talk-show host Michael Savage in a copyright dispute that hinges on the takedown of a one-minute-long YouTube video.

The video called "Michael Savage Hates Muslims" (and still available here) features a photo of Savage, along with a short audio excerpt from the "Savage Nation" program, in which Savage makes clear his disdain for Muslims and Islam. "You can take your religion and shove it up your behind," he yells at one point. "I'm sick of you."

Brave New Films has an adversarial history with Savage. The company maintains a site called NoSavage.org, which features the "Michael Savage Hates Muslims" video along with links to other inflammatory remarks by the host.

The complaint holds that Talk Radio Network Inc., the Oregon company that syndicates Savage's show, sent a takedown request to YouTube for the video on Oct. 2 -- the night of the vice presidential debate, and a moment of intense interest in online political news. As a result of the network's request, YouTube not only removed the offending video but disabled Brave New Films' YouTube channel completely. Because Brave New Films uses the YouTube player to embed its videos on its own public website, that site suffered as well.

According to YouTube, copyright law requires the company to terminate accounts that repeatedly infringe, and Brave New Films had problems with Viacom last year when they used material from the "Colbert Report." Suspensions can be lifted if one or more of the claims are retracted.

Reached for a comment before the suit was officially filed, Phil Newmark, a producer at Talk Radio Network, said on behalf of Savage, "Michael never sent a complaint to YouTube about anything. This did not come from him in any way, shape or form." Newmark said he had no information about where the complaint originated, but said he would contact TRN's chief executive, Mark Masters, to inquire. TRN is also named in the suit.

Brave New Films' channel is No. 71 of all time among YouTube directors -- a highly competitive category. The company's 300 separate videos have collectively earned 36 million views. Greenwald was able to get his channel reactivated by midmorning on Friday, but by then it had missed the big wave of debate-related traffic. Adding to the trouble was that Brave New Films had taken out a full-page ad in the New York Times that morning, while its site was still incapacitated.

Greenwald called the situation, which left most of his company's content "dead" during a time of peak political interest, "incredibly scary and troubling."

"On some level, no matter what the damages are, we can't get back the views of Thursday and the views and impact of Friday, when the New York Times ad came out," he said in a phone interview.
