Shock jock Michael Savage is a bully. He derides, demeans, and distorts those who don't agree with his hate-filled, right-wing agenda, and when that fails, he files lawsuits. Now, Savage has tried to silence Brave New Films -- this bully has pushed us too far.

Here's what happened: Last Thursday night, YouTube removed over 300 of our videos from their site and disabled our account, including our highly popular Real McCain and FOX Attacks series. They didn't restore the account until Friday afternoon. We were furious to discover that our entire account was disabled over one unjust copyright complaint from Michael Savage and the Original Talk Radio Network, Inc., regarding a video we made eight months ago titled "Michael Savage Hates Muslims" -- a video that fell well within the terms of fair use of the material.

Here's what we're doing: On Friday, Brave New Films filed a lawsuit against Savage for his effort to suppress and silence us. Thanks to help from the Stanford Law School's Fair Use Project, we will take the fight right back to Savage and the Original Talk Radio Network, Inc.

Here's how you can help: Sign up to become a Savage Watcher. Help us be on the lookout for more of Savage's harmful behavior that you can report back to us, and get the latest on our No Savage campaign as we escalate this battle. Then, take the video Savage tried to censor and spread it far and wide; if we can't get it back on YouTube, then we can post it on blogs and networking sites like Digg to makes sure people continue to see it. Let's stop the savage behavior once and for all!

Instead of letting Savage continue to step all over our rights, values, and the U.S. Constitution, let's stand up to this savage behavior once and for all!

At least Savage is not afraid of speaking his mind! So many of us are to afraid to speak up, trapped in this politically correct society where any act of American Pride is sqashed for fear of offending someone. I find it Ironic that you are fighting for your cause of "Free Speech" by trying to censor someone. God I love the logic of the extreem left!!!

Brave New Films and Michael Savage have one thing in common... the constitutionally protected right to voice an opinion. Of all the forms of speech, political speech must receive the greatest protection of all. Hence what constitutes "Fair Use" under copyright law must be interpreted as broadly as possible when it comes to political speech. Keep it up Robert Greenwald.

ironically michael savage denies any involvement in asking for the video to be removed. it probably helps his campaign to protect our language culture and borders to have the audio of this clip played to anyone who cares enough to listen. thanks for promoting the american values that savage so gallantly upholds but please leave out the senseless spin.
