No. C 08-04703 SI

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S DISCOVERY REQUEST WITHOUT PREJUDICE [Docket No. 94]

11 MICHAEL WEINER a/k/a MICHAEL
12 SAVAGE, and ORIGINAL TALK
13 RADIO NETWORK, INC.,

Defendants.
14 _____/

15 Now before the Court is plaintiff's request for the Court's intervention in a discovery dispute.
16 Plaintiff seeks an order compelling defendants to (1) provide supplemental responses to plaintiff's
17 interrogatories and requests for admissions, (2) produce documents responsive to plaintiff's request for 18 production, and (3) produce detailed privilege logs for withheld or redacted documents that defendants
19 claim are privileged. Defendants represent that after plaintiff filed its letter brief, defendants produced
20 supplemental documents and detailed privilege logs.

21 If defendants' representations are correct, it appears that plaintiff's request is now moot.
22 Accordingly, plaintiff's motion is DENIED without prejudice to reconsideration should plaintiff find
23 that defendants' production is unsatisfactory. As guidance to the parties, the Court notes that each of 24 the categories of inquiry described by plaintiff in its letter brief appears to be relevant to plaintiff's
25 claims. Those subjects are: (1) agreements and licenses between Savage and OTRN, (2)
26 communications between Savage and OTRN concerning intellectual property rights, (3) information
27 about the relationship between Savage and OTRN, (4) information about the copyright ownership of 28 The Michael Savage Show, (5) information about OTRN or Savage's review of plaintiff's video, (6)

1 information about the September 29 takedown letter.

2 Going forward, should either party seek the Court's intervention in a discovery dispute, it will
3 aid the Court if the parties attach the relevant discovery requests and responses to their letter briefs.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
