STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

25 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

26 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of 27 confidential, proprietary, and/or private information for which special protection from public 28 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted.

1 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated 2 Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on 3 all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the 4 limited information or items that are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as 5 confidential. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 10, below, that this 6 Stipulated Protective Order creates no entitlement to file confidential information under seal; 7 Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and reflects the standards 8 that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

9 2. DEFINITIONS

10 2.1 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, 11 employees, consultants, retained experts, in house counsel, outside counsel (and their support 12 staff).

13 2.2 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 14 the medium or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, 15 testimony, transcripts, or tangible things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or 16 responses to discovery in this matter.

17 2.3 "Confidential" Information or Items: information (regardless of how 18 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under standards 19 developed under F.R.C.P. 26(c).

20 2.4 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material 21 from a Producing Party.

22 2.5 Producing Party: a Party or non-party that produces Disclosure or 23 Discovery Material in this action.

24 2.6 Designating Party: a Party or non-party that designates information or 25 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "Confidential."

26 2.7 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 27 designated as "Confidential."
28

1 2.8 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who are 2 retained to represent or advise a Party in this action.

3 2.9 In House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party.

4 2.10 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and In House Counsel (as 5 well as their support staffs).

6 2.11 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter 7 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its Counsel to serve as a expert 8 witness or as a consultant in this action and who is not a past or a current employee of a Party or 9 of a competitor of a Party's and who, at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an 10 employee of a Party or a competitor of a Party. This definition includes a professional jury or 11 trial consultant retained in connection with this litigation.

12 2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support 13 services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; 14 organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and 15 subcontractors.

16 3. SCOPE

17 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material 18 (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as all copies, 19 excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or presentations by 20 parties or counsel to or in court or in other settings that might reveal Protected Material.

21 4. DURATION

22 Even after the termination of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 23 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order 24 otherwise directs.

25 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

26 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection:

27 Each Party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must 28 take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate

1 standards. A Designating Party must take care to designate for protection only those parts of 2 material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions 3 of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are 4 not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

5 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 6 shown to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 7 unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process, or to impose unnecessary 8 expenses and burdens on other parties), may expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

9 If it comes to a Party's or a non-party's attention that information or items that it 10 designated for protection do not qualify for protection at all, that Party or non-party must 11 promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

12 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 13 Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a), below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, 14 material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the 15 material is disclosed or produced.

16 Designation in conformity with this Order requires.

17 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts of 18 depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend 19 "CONFIDENTIAL" on each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions 20 of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify 21 the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

22 A Party or non-party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection 23 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which 24 material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all 25 of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the 26 inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants, the Producing Party must determine which 27 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order, then, before producing the 28 specified documents, the Producing Party must affix "CONFIDENTIAL" on each page that

1 contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 2 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 3 appropriate markings in the margins).

4 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial 5 proceedings, that the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the testimony identify on the 6 record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony.
7 When it is impractical to identify separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to 8 protection, and when it appears that substantial portions of the testimony may qualify for 9 protection, the Party or non-party that sponsors, offers, or gives the testimony may invoke on the 10 record (before the deposition or proceeding is concluded) a right to have up to 20 days to identify 11 the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought. Only those portions of the 12 testimony that are appropriately designated for protection within the 20 days shall be covered by 13 the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

14 Transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound by the court 15 reporter, who must affix to the top of each such page the legend "CONFIDENTIAL," as 16 instructed by the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the witness or presenting the 17 testimony.

18 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary, 19 and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 20 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend 21 "CONFIDENTIAL." If only portions of the information or item warrant protection, the 22 Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portions.

23 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 24 failure to designate qualified information or items as "Confidential" does not, standing alone, 25 waive the Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material. If 26 material is appropriately designated as "Confidential" after the material was initially produced, 27 the Receiving Party, on timely notification of the designation, must make reasonable efforts to 28 assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

1 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2 6.1 Timing of Challenges: Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's 3 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial unfairness, unnecessary 4 economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not 5 waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge 6 promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

7 6.2 Meet and Confer: A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a 8 Designating Party's confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the 9 process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not 10 sufficient) with counsel for the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Party must 11 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give 12 the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the 13 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen 14 designation. A challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it 15 has engaged in this meet and confer process first.

16 6.3 Judicial Intervention: A Party that elects to press a challenge to a 17 confidentiality designation after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party 18 may file and serve a motion under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 19 79-5, if applicable) that identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis for the 20 challenge. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms that 21 the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding 22 paragraph and that sets forth with specificity the justification for the confidentiality designation 23 that was given by the Designating Party in the meet and confer dialogue.

24 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating 25 Party. Until the court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford the material in 26 question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation.
27
28

1 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

2 7.1 Basic Principles: A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 3 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for 4 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be 5 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.
6 When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of 7 section 11, below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

8 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and 9 in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

10 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: Unless otherwise 11 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may 12 disclose any information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL only to:

- 13 (a) the Receiving Party's Counsel;
- 14 (b) the officers, directors, and employees of the Receiving Party to 15 whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;
- 16 (c) experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 17 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be 18 Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);
- 19 (d) the Court and its personnel;
- 20 (e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom 21 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;
- 22 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure 23 is reasonably necessary. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that 24 reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be 25 disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.
- 26 (g) the author of the document or the original source of the 27 information.
- 28

1 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED
2 IN OTHER LITIGATION.

3 If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that 4 would compel disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 5 “CONFIDENTIAL,” the Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing (by fax, 6 if possible) immediately and in no event more than three court days after receiving the subpoena 7 or order. Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order.

8 The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the Party who caused the 9 subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all the material covered by the 10 subpoena or order is the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must 11 deliver a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order promptly to the Party in the other action that 12 caused the subpoena or order to issue.

13 The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of 14 this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to 15 protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued. The 16 Designating Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking protection in that court of its 17 confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or 18 encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

19 9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

20 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected 21 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective 22 Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the 23 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, 24 (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 25 this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and 26 Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

27 10. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL

28 In the event that a Receiving Party decides to submit material that a Producing Party has

1 designated "CONFIDENTIAL" to the Court for any purpose, the parties agree as follows: The 2 submitting party will notify the Designating Party at least seven (7) calendar days prior to filing 3 the pleading, motion, brief or declaration containing or disclosing the Confidential Information to 4 the Court. The submitting party will specify what Confidential Information will be submitted to 5 the Court so that the party to whom the information belongs may prepare the appropriate motion 6 to have the record filed under seal. The parties will then coordinate the filing of the pleading, 7 motion, brief or declaration so that the party to whom the Confidential Information belongs can 8 simultaneously file the appropriate motion with the Court to have the record filed under seal in 9 accordance with Northern District of California Local Rule of Court 79-5. The party filing the 10 pleading, motion, brief, or declaration will lodge the Confidential Information with the Court in 11 accordance with Northern District of California Local Rule of Court 79-5.

12 11. FINAL DISPOSITION

13 Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in writing by the Producing Party, within sixty days 14 after the final termination of this action, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material 15 to the Producing Party. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, 16 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other form of reproducing or capturing any of the 17 Protected Material. With permission in writing from the Designating Party, the Receiving Party 18 may destroy some or all of the Protected Material instead of returning it. Whether the Protected 19 Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the 20 Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the sixty day 21 deadline that identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was 22 returned or destroyed and that affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, 23 abstracts, compilations, summaries or other forms of reproducing or capturing any of the 24 Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival 25 copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence or attorney 26 work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that 27 contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 28 Section 4 (DURATION), above.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief: Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections: By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.
