2010, to July 7, 2010.

Pursuant to Civ. L.R. 6-2(a)(1), the Declaration of Daniel R. Foster In Support of Stipulation and [Proposed] Order Extending Time To File Motions To Compel ("Foster Declaration") is being filed herewith, setting forth with particularity, the reasons for the requested extension of time. The extension is necessary because, pursuant to the Court's Standing Order on Discovery Disputes, the Parties must meet and confer in-person prior to the filing of motions to compel. (Foster Decl. ¶ 2.) The Parties had an in-person meet and confer on June 4, 2010, and were first able to have an in-person, follow-up meet and confer on June 25, following the close of discovery on June 18. (Id.) The Parties were not able to have this follow-up meeting earlier, in part, because of the all-day mediation which took place on June 22. (Id.) Pursuant to Civ. L.R. 6-2(a)(2), the Foster Declaration also sets forth previous time modifications in this case. (Id. ¶¶ 3-14). The requested time modification will not alter the existing schedule for the case. (Id. ¶ 15).
