ORDER APPROVING STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
ORDER SUBJECT TO STATED CONDITIONS

20 The stipulated protective order submitted by the parties is hereby APPROVED, subject to 21 the following conditions, including adherence to the recently announced strict caution against 22 sealing orders by the Ninth Circuit (as set out below):

23 1. The parties must make a good-faith determination that any
24 information designated “confidential” truly warrants protection under Rule 26(c)
25 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Designations of material as 26 “confidential” must be narrowly tailored to include only material for which there
27 is good cause. A pattern of over-designation may lead to an order un-designating 28 all or most materials on a wholesale basis.

2. In order to be treated as confidential, any materials filed with the Court must be lodged with a request for filing under seal in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Please limit your requests for sealing to only those narrowly

1 tailored portions of materials for which good cause to seal exists. Please include
2 all other portions of your materials in the public file and clearly indicate therein
3 where material has been redacted and sealed. Each filing requires an 4 individualized sealing order; blanket prospective authorizations are no longer
5 allowed by Civil Local Rule 79-5.

6 3. Chambers copies should include all material — both redacted and 7 unredacted — so that chambers staff does not have to reassemble the whole brief
8 or declaration. Although chambers copies should clearly designate which 9 portions are confidential, chambers copies with confidential materials will be 10 handled like all other chambers copies of materials without special restriction, and 11 will typically be recycled, not shredded.

12 4. In Kamakana v. Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 2006),
13 the Ninth Circuit held that more than good cause, indeed, “compelling reasons”
14 are required to seal documents used in dispositive motions, just as compelling
15 reasons would be needed to justify a closure of a courtroom during trial.
16 Otherwise, the Ninth Circuit held, public access to the work of the courts will be 17 unduly compromised. Therefore, no request for a sealing order will be allowed 18 on summary judgment motions (or other dispositive motions) unless the movant
19 first shows a “compelling reason,” a substantially higher standard than “good 20 cause.” This will be true regardless of any stipulation by the parties. Counsel are 21 warned that most summary judgment motions and supporting material should be 22 completely open to public view. Only social security numbers, names of 23 juveniles, home addresses and phone numbers, and trade secrets of a compelling
24 nature (like the recipe for Coca Cola, for example) will qualify. If the courtroom
25 would not be closed for the information, nor should any summary judgment
26 proceedings, which are, in effect, a substitute for trial. Motions in limine are also 27 part of the trial and must likewise be laid bare absent compelling reasons. Please
28

1 comply fully. Noncompliant submissions are liable to be stricken in their 2 entirety.

3 5. Any confidential materials used openly in court hearings or trial
4 will not be treated in any special manner absent a further order.

5 6. This order does not preclude any party from moving to 6 undesignate information or documents that have been designated as confidential.
7 The party seeking to designate material as confidential has the burden of 8 establishing that the material is entitled to protection.

9 7. The Court will retain jurisdiction over disputes arising from the 10 proposed and stipulated protective order for only NINETY DAYS after final 11 termination of the action.

12
13 IT IS SO ORDERED.

15 Dated: October 1, 2009.
