CASE NO. CV-08-05737 WHA

STIPULATION TO EXTEND PAGE
 LIMITATIONS OF CIVIL L.Rs. 7.2(a) and 7.4(b) AND ORDER WITH MODIFICATIONS

Judge: Hon. William Alsup

1 The parties hereto hereby stipulate to an extension of the page limitations contained in
2 Civil L.Rs. 7-2(a) and 7-4(b), to permit the Defendants to file Motions for Summary Judgment
3 with incorporated Memorandum of Points and Authorities, and the Plaintiff to file Oppositions to 4 such motions, each of up to 30 pages in length.

5 Civil L.Rs. 7-2(a) and 7-4(b) provide that motions and their incorporated briefs or 6 memoranda of points and authorities shall not exceed 25 pages of text. Mindful of those rules,
7 and recognizing that it is always important to keep briefs as concise as possible, Defendants
8 BCTGM and Roark have prepared a draft motion for summary judgment. Although under the 9 Rules, Defendant BCTGM and Roark could each file a brief of up to 25 pages, they will be filing
10 a joint brief. In drafting the joint brief, they have found that one marginally longer than 25
11 pages is necessary in order for them to adequately present the reasons why they believe summary
12 judgment should be granted on the entirety of Plaintiff's case. While the facts of this case are 13 not particularly complicated, Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint sets forth six different legal 14 theories under which Plaintiff claims he is entitled to relief. Under these circumstances, 15 Defendants BCTGM and Roark have found that 30 pages are needed in order to present their 16 arguments, and it is also appropriate that Plaintiff should have the same page limits in which to 17 oppose Defendants' motions.

18 Thus, the parties have consulted and have agreed that it is reasonable for Defendants'
19 Motions for Summary Judgment and Plaintiff's Oppositions to such motions to be up to 30 pages
20 in length. The parties further agree that they will comply with the 15-page limitation of Civil 21 L.R. 7-4(b) for their Reply briefs.

22 For these reasons, it is hereby stipulated as follows:

23 1. The parties respectfully request that the Court grant leave to permit the Defendants to 24 file Motions for Summary Judgment of up to 30 pages in length, and the Plaintiff to file
25 Oppositions to such motions of up to 30 pages in length.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the 30-page limit applies only to joint summary judgment briefs filed by two or more defendants, and any briefs filed in opposition thereto. Summary judgment motions filed by single defendants (and oppositions filed in response) must comply with the 25 page limit.
