13 Q. When was that?

14 A. Actually, when she was in the process of moving,
15 the general manager and myself was at the gate. Michael 16 Jackson. And we had just got -- I don't know -- the 17 Phoenix flight. I don't know the specific flight number.
18 Anyway, Kelly was at the podium, and Michael and I were 19 on the side just talking, the three of us. And Kelly 20 said, "Well, I've just about got a few more passengers to 21 go to San Francisco so we won't be oversold and then
22 maybe I can get on the flight, you know, if it works
23 out."

24 And I says -- then that's when I learned she was 25 moving passengers. I said, "Why are you moving people?"

1 She said, "Because the flight is oversold, and we're
2 trying to get them to go to San Francisco prior to them
3 coming here so they can make it out."

4 So at that point, Michael Jackson and myself
5 both became aware of the situation at that moment. The 6 conversation that ensued after that was Michael kind of 7 laughed about it and says "good job." You know, "good 8 job" or "good idea," something along those lines. I knew 9 it was a "good" something behind it, but I knew it was 10 commending her for the efforts. However, as we walked 11 away towards the counter, he turned around and made a
12 comment to me, "Does she know she can get fired -- does 13 she know she can get in trouble for moving these people?"
14 I says, "Well, if you feel that way, why don't you say
15 something to her." He just shook his head and laughed --
16 smirked, more or less, and walked off. Him and I both 17 walked off towards the counter.
