and DOES 1–100, inclusive,

21 Defendants.
22 _____/

23 Plaintiffs' motion to seal the testimony of expert witness Roger Clark is DENIED.
24 Clark's testimony was in open court and a matter of public record. The Ninth Circuit has 25 emphasized that there is a "strong presumption" in favor of public access to court documents.
26 Kamakana v. City & County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1178 (9th Cir. 2006). Litigants must 27 present "compelling reasons," beyond good cause, to justify sealing court records. Ibid. These 28 reasons must be supported by "articulable facts" identifying both the secrecy interests and how these interests outweigh the public interest in access. Id. at 1181.

1 Plaintiffs claim that circulation of the testimony will violate California law and injure
2 Clark. But plaintiffs have not identified particular offending instances of testimony and have 3 not narrowly tailored their motion to seal or redact only that testimony. This omission runs
4 afoul of Civil Local Rule 79-5(a).

5 Plaintiffs may make a new, more particularized, motion to seal. But if plaintiffs do not
6 bring a new motion by NOON ON MONDAY, AUGUST 30, the Court will order the clerk to unseal
7 the testimony. Plaintiffs are on notice that a new motion must (1) be narrowly tailored in light
8 of the strong presumption in favor of access to court documents, conforming to Civil Local Rule
9 79-5; (2) articulate facts in support of compelling reasons to seal, in accordance with 10 Kamakana; and (3) address the extent to which contemporaneous evidentiary objections were 11 made, or not made, and why resolution of any such objections should not also resolve the issues
12 presented by their motion to seal.

13 The hearing set for September 2, 2010, at 8:00 a.m. is hereby VACATED.

14
15 IT IS SO ORDERED.
