IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

EARL YOUNG,

No. C 09-01042 JSW

Plaintiff,

VOIR DIRE

v.

T. HOLMES, et al.,

Defendants.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This is a civil rights action between the Plaintiff Earl Young, who was an inmate at Pelican Bay State Prison in 2006, and four Defendant correctional officers - Todd Holmes, Michael Bullock, Terence Buchanan, and Karl Kiplinger. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants used excessive force during an incident that began on the second tier located near the shower and ended on the lower tier in front of Plaintiff's cell in Pelican Bay State Prison. Plaintiff also alleges that Defendants failed to intervene to stop or curtail the excessive force used during the incident.

Defendants deny that they used unreasonable force or that they had the opportunity to and failed to intervene to stop others from using unreasonable force against Plaintiff. Defendants contend that the force used was reasonable and necessary in light of Defendants' contention that Plaintiff failed to obey orders, physically attacked Defendants, and resisted staff. Defendants also contend that they are entitled to qualified immunity.
