CASE NO. 09-CV-2292 VRW

DECLARATION OF MATTHEW D.
 MCGILL IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS'
 OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT-
 INTERVENORS' MOTION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE TO EXCEED

1 I, Matthew D. McGill, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a partner at the law firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, and I am one of the
3 attorneys of record for Plaintiffs Kristin M. Perry, Sandra B. Stier, Paul T. Katami, and Jeffrey J.
4 Zarrillo ("Plaintiffs") in this action. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Opposition to 5 Defendant-Intervenors Motion for Administrative Leave to Exceed Page Limitations. Doc #172.
6 I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and if called as a witness, I could and would
7 competently testify hereto.

8 2. On September 9, 2009, counsel for Defendant-Intervenors first contacted me to 9 request our consent to the filing a 100 page motion for summary judgment. We declined the request,
10 but offered to discuss and negotiate a reasonable page increase. Defendant-Intervenors declined to 11 discuss or negotiate a page limit of less than 100 pages.

12 3. Later in the day on September 9, 2009, I spoke again with Defendant-Intervenors'
13 counsel. They informed me that they intended to file a motion for leave to exceed the page limitation
14 and would be filing their 100 page motion for summary judgment with that filing. I offered
15 Defendant-Intervenors additional time to file a summary judgment motion that conformed to the local
16 rules, provided that the hearing date and reply brief filing date remained the same, that Plaintiffs be
17 given extra days to oppose the motion, and that those extra days be deducted from Defendant-
18 Intervenors' time to reply. Defendant-Intervenors declined the offer and reaffirmed their intention to 19 file a 100 page dispositive motion.

20 I declare, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States, that these facts are true
21 and correct and that this Declaration is executed this 10th day of September 2009 at Washington, DC.
