7 TRIAL MEMORANDUM

8 This matter presents important constitutional questions that require and warrant 9 judicial determination. In a constitutional democracy, it is the role of the courts to determine and 10 resolve such questions. To the extent that Plaintiffs have stated a justiciable controversy, setting 11 forth federal constitutional challenges to Proposition 8, it is appropriate for the federal courts to 12 determine and resolve those challenges. The Administration Defendants encourage the Court to 13 resolve the merits of this action expeditiously.

14 The Administration Defendants intend to appear before this Court at trial through 15 trial counsel, Kenneth C. Mennemeier or Andrew W. Stroud of the law firm Mennemeier, 16 Glassman & Stroud, LLP. However, the Administration Defendants take no position on the 17 merits of Plaintiffs' claims regarding the validity of Proposition 8 as alleged in this matter.
18 Accordingly, the Administration Defendants do not presently anticipate presenting any evidence 19 or calling any witnesses at trial, but reserve the right to object to any evidence presented or to call 20 witnesses as may be necessary for rebuttal to any evidence presented.
