1 I, Divya Narendra, declare,

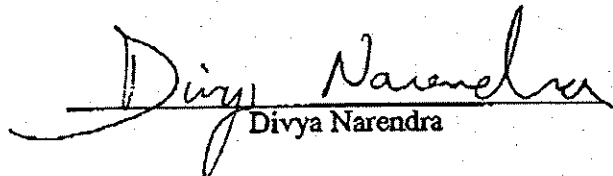

2 1. During the late spring and early summer of 2004, I accessed thefacebook.com website
3 on various occasions. I used the access information, i.e. the email account and passwords either
4 voluntarily provided to me by various friends and acquaintances who were already registered users
5 of thefacebook.com, or provided to me by Cameron Winklevoss. Each of these people who 6 provided to me their access information authorized me to logon to thefacebook.com. Cameron 7 Winklevoss told me each of the people who provided him their access information knew he might be 8 sharing this with me.

9 2. After logging onto thefacebook.com, I was able to see the email addresses of other 10 Facebook users. These email addresses were directly visible. There were no security features or 11 other hindrances that I had to avoid in order to see these email addresses. I personally downloaded
12 onto my computer some of these email addresses that I found on thefacebook.com. Substantially 13 most if not all of these downloads occurred prior to the end of July, 2004.

14 3. Each time I met with Mark Zuckerberg, it was at or near the Harvard campus in 15 Cambridge Massachusetts. To the extent I received email communication from Mark Zuckerberg, it 16 was from his email account provided by Harvard University while we were both students at Harvard.

17 4. During the spring and early summer of 2004 when I downloaded email addresses 18 from the facebook.com I did not understand that Mark Zuckerberg was in California. During this 19 time I did not know that Mark Zuckerberg might create a corporation from which thefacebook.com 20 site would be run. During this time, I did not know that any such corporation would be located in 21 California.

22 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of California that the foregoing 23 is true and correct and that this declaration was executed on the 19 day of May, 2006.
