5 TO PLAINTIFF AND ITS ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

6 The above-named party hereby responds, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
7 Section 2030.210(a), to the First Set of Special Interrogatories as follows:

8 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

9 1. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and to the definitions and instructions to 10 the extent they seek to impose obligations that are broader than or inconsistent with the California
11 Code of Civil Procedure and applicable Local Rules or court orders.

12 2. Responding party objects to each interrogatory, and to the definitions and instructions to 13 the extent they seek the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege, attorney
14 work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or protection, as provided by any applicable
15 law. Responding party does not intend to produce such privileged or protected documents or 16 information, and the inadvertent disclosure of such is not to be deemed a waiver of any privilege.
17 Responding party expressly reserves the right to object to the introduction at trial or any other use of 18 such information that may be inadvertently disclosed. In addition, Responding party objects to the 19 interrogatories and all definitions and instructions to the extent they seek and/or require Responding
20 party to produce a privilege log for documents or information falling within the attorney-client
21 privilege or work-product doctrine, if such documents or information were created after the date that 22 this lawsuit was filed.

23 3. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all other definitions and instructions
24 to the extent they are vague, overly broad, unduly burdensome, exceed the boundaries of 25 discoverable information, or fail to describe the information sought with the required reasonable 26 particularity.

27 4. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all definitions and instructions to the 28 extent the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit, given the needs

1 of the case, the amount in controversy, the parties' resources, the importance of the issues at stake in
2 the litigation, and the importance of the proposed discovery in resolving the issues.

3 5. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all other definitions and instructions
4 to the extent they seek information that is confidential financial, proprietary, trade secret or other
5 confidential or competitively sensitive business information relating to Responding party or any
6 third party. Responding party reserves the right to object that certain information is so confidential
7 and sensitive that it will not be produced even pursuant to a protective order.

8 6. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all definitions and instructions to the 9 extent they seek information not in Responding Party's custody or control.

10 7. Responding party objects to the interrogatory and all other definitions and instructions to 11 the extent they seek information that is beyond the scope of this litigation, is not relevant, or that 12 falls outside the parameters of discoverable information under the California Code of Civil 13 Procedure.

14 8. Responding party has not yet completed its investigation, collection of information,
15 discovery, and analysis relating to this action. The following response is based on information
16 known and available to Responding party at this time. Responding party reserves the right to 17 modify, change, or supplement its response and to produce additional evidence at trial.

18 9. Responding party's agreement to furnish information in response to Plaintiff's
19 interrogatories shall not be deemed as an admission regarding the relevance of the requested
20 information, nor is it intended to waive any right to object the admissibility of such at trial.

21 10. Responding party objects to producing at this time documents unrelated to the issue of 22 personal jurisdiction over the individual Defendants.

23 OBJECTIONS TO DEFINITIONS

24 1. Responding party objects to all definitions to the extent they impose burdens on 25 responding different or greater than those provided in the California Code of Civil Procedure.

26 2. Responding party objects to all definitions to the extent that they are burdensome,
27 oppressive and unnecessary.

RESPONSES AND SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS

INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

Responding Party incorporates each of his prior responses and objections herein to this third amended response. In addition, Responding Party responds as follows: On different occasions, Responding Party logged into facebook.com. Responding Party’s friends, including Mark Hall and Alexander Chastain Chapman provided Responding party with their log-in information for facebook.com and authorized Responding Party to use this log-in information to access and use the information provided on facebook.com. Responding Party does not recall the number of times he accessed facebook.com. The purpose of some of these occasions was to see what information was available on the site. Responding Party communicated with Tyler Winklevoss, Divya Narendra and Winston Williams regarding some of the information on facebook.com. Responding party has no specific recollection of the details of these communications with Tyler Winklevoss or Divya Narendra. Responding Party recalls general discussions with Winston Williams regarding an automated process for sending invitations to various email addresses found on facebook.com.

INTERROGATORY NO. 14:

Responding Party incorporates his earlier response and objections herein to this third amended response. In addition, Responding Party responds as follows:

Responding Party understands the parties have agreed to limit this interrogatory as it refers to “agents” to third-party activities that concerned facebook.com user addresses.

ConnectU does not concede or believe any of the consultants it hired was an “agent.” ConnectU retained Pacific Northwest Software for the purpose of developing and furthering the ConnectU website. Pacific Northwest Software was involved in creating and implementing an automated process for sending invitations to various email addresses found on facebook.com. Assisting with this automated process were Wayne Chang, David Gucwa, and Joel Voss.
