FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DANIEL RODRIGUEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL J. ASTRUE,

Defendant.

No. C-09-2668 MMC

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR RELIEF

By order filed December 6, 2010, the Court granted plaintiff's motion for summary judgment and remanded the above-titled matter to the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, with directions to further consider plaintiff's application for benefits. Thereafter, on June 12, 2012, plaintiff filed a document titled "Relief Sought," attached to which is a document indicating that, as of November 18, 2010, the Department of Homeland Security had not yet made a decision on an application for naturalization. Having read and considered plaintiff's June 12, 2012 filing, the Court rules as follows.

To the extent the June 12, 2012 filing seeks reconsideration of any order issued in the above-titled, and now closed, action against the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, the request for relief is hereby DENIED, for the reason that plaintiff fails to identify any cognizable basis for reconsideration. To the extent the June 12, 2012 filing constitutes an attempt to allege new claims against the Commissioner of the Social

1 Security Administration, the Department of Homeland Security, or any other entity or 2 person, the request for relief is hereby DENIED, without prejudice to plaintiff's alleging any 3 new claims in a new complaint filed in the appropriate forum.
