Re: Wilson v. Donovan
No. CV09-03135 JSW

Dear Judge White:

Plaintiff respectfully requests an additional 45 days, commencing upon receipt of this correspondence, to file first amended complaint. At case management conference Plaintiff was granted 30 days to allow for completion of EEO complaint with which he intends amend current matter before the Court. The Investigator informed Plaintiff that the EEO complaint has concluded but is currently being reviewed by HUD's EEO and General Counsel. In addition, this time period was also to allow Plaintiff time to obtain counsel. Both perspective counsels referenced at CMS cannot represent Plaintiff at this time. One counsel has a trial scheduled at the same time as Plaintiff's trial, January of 2011 (see attachment 1 - email from Leslie Levy), and the other (see attachment 2 - email from Robert Seldon) does not have capacity to take on new cases.

The Court has granted Plaintiff one prior extension of time to address these issues. We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Victor T. Wilson
