15 _____
16 Marcus L. Harrison, an inmate at Pelican Bay State Prison (“PBSP”), filed a pro se civil 17 rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, asserting a First Amendment claim regarding the 18 confiscation of certain outgoing and incoming mail. On September 21, 2011, the court granted
19 in part and denied in part defendants’ summary judgment motion. See Docket #20. This case 20 was referred to Magistrate Judge Vadas for settlement proceedings. Id. The parties were unable 21 to reach an agreement. See Docket #58. Accordingly, the court will set a case management 22 conference to discuss what remains to be done in this case and when it will be ready for a trial.

23 The telephonic case management conference will be held in this action at 3:00 p.m. on 24 Friday, August 24, 2012. Each party must file and serve a case management statement no later
25 than August 6, 2012 indicating what discovery remains to be done, the amount of time needed 26 for discovery, whether any further motions will be filed, when they will be ready for trial, and 27 an estimate of the number of days needed for trial. The case management conference statements 28 need not be jointly prepared. The Deputy Attorney General representing defendant in this action will initiate the conference call and have plaintiff connected on the telephone call before

1 connecting the conference call to the court. The Deputy Attorney General should call the 2 courtroom deputy in advance to obtain the phone number.
