Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of Service of Summons

TO: Google Legal Support, DMCA Complaints

1600 Ampitheater Rd, Mountain View, CA 94043

A lawsuit has been commenced against you (or the entity on whose behalf you are addressed). A copy of the complaint is attached to this notice. It has been filed in the United States District Court for the Ninth District and has been assigned docket number _____

This is not a formal summons or notification from the court, but rather my request that you sign and return the enclosed waiver of service in order to save the costs of serving you with a judicial summons and an additional copy of the complaint. The cost of service will be avoided if I receive a signed copy of the waiver within 30 days after the date designated below as the date on which this Notice and Request is sent. I enclose a stamped and addressed envelope (or other means of cost-free return) for your use. An extra copy of the waiver is also attached for your records.

If you comply with this request and return the signed waiver, it will be filed with the court and no summons will be served on you. The action will then proceed as if you had been served on the date the waiver is filed, except that you will not be obligated to answer the complaint before 60 days from the date designated below as the date on which this notice is sent (or before 90 days from that date if your address is not in any judicial district of the United States).

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, I will take appropriate steps to effect formal service in a manner authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and will then, as authorized by those Rules, ask the court to require you (or the party on whose behalf you are addressed) to pay the full costs of such service. In that connection, please read the statement concerning the duty of parties to waive the service of the summons, which is set forth on the reverse side (or at the foot) of the waiver form.

I affirm that this request is being sent to you on behalf of the plaintiff, this 3 day of October, 2009.

In compliance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 4

Waiver of Service of Summons

TO: Google Legal Support

I acknowledge receipt of your request that I waive service of a summons in the action of Anthony M. Benjamin Sr. vs. Google Inc. which is case number _____ in the United States District Court for the Ninth District. I have also received a copy of the complaint in the action, two copies of this instrument, and a means by which I can return the signed waiver to you without cost to me.

I agree to save the cost of service of a summons and an additional copy of the complaint in this lawsuit by not requiring that I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) be served with judicial process in the manner provided by Rule 4.

I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) will retain all defenses or objections to the lawsuit or to the jurisdiction or venue of the court except for objections based on a defect in the summons or in the service of the summons.

I understand that a judgment may be entered against me (or the party on whose behalf I am acting) if an answer or motion under Rule 12 is not served upon you within 60 days after 10/5/2009, or within 90 days after that date if the request was sent outside the United States.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant who, after being notified of an action and asked to waive service of a summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or even its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service must (within the time specified on the waiver form serve on the plaintiff's attorney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against the defendant, by waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons has been actually served when the request for waiver of service was received.

RE Copyright Infringement of the book
"The Magic Signature Act - A Spiritual Journey into the Worlds of Names, Lines and Shapes"
ISBN # 0-9764590-6-4 -
U S Copyright Pending - LOC Document Attachment

In an act of senseless care personal rights, Google Book Partner Search published on the internet my entire book "The Magic Signature Act - A Spiritual Journey into the Worlds of Names, Lines and Shapes without my permission.

After first uploading the book to Google Partner Search in February of 2009, I requested it be temporarily removed from their listing because I did not like the way Google enter pages from the book.

After seeing Google had the book listed on the internet with no information I made a request to Google to list some information on the book, but only the pages I wanted listed.

In an act of senseless cruelty, Google Book Search Partner, without my permission listed the entire book "The Magic Signature Act" on the internet at:
[http://books.google.com/books?id=ncZ-OfpnM0gC&dq=the+magic+signature+act&printsec=frontcover&source=bl&ots=gs1bHNU8_5&sig=4_POaLMmF6suZiYokW9RIHdZZGg&hl=en&ei=ToqhSuv0KI7uswOQ28iNDw&sa=X&oi=book_result&ct=result&resum=8#v=onepage&q=&f=false]

Listing my entire book on the Internet minimized my chances of finding other chances of finding publishers and buyers because they listed the entire book on the internet.

The book is the results of over 20 years of research, interviews and editing material, and for Google Book Partner Search to give it away for nothing is a crime.

For reason I am not certain, Google Book Partner Search violated my copyright privileges.

The new class action suit by Google in regard to authors and publishers rights say that both groups have the right to decide which pages will be published on the internet.

Google Book Partner search was so negligent to list the book online without the proper ISBN #.

What compensation do I deserved for the infringement of my copyrights for my book.

As of today, September 9, 2009 I am demanding "The Magic Signature Act" be taken off the internet and only republished after I tell you pages I want published in your Google Book Partner Search.

I believe you have willfully infringed my rights under 17 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq. and could be liable for statutory damages as high as $150,000 as set forth in Section 504(c)(2) therein.

If I donot have a response from Google by 9/16/2009; I will file a lawsuit in federal court.

Hello Anthony,

Thank you for your reply, and I apologize for any frustration you may be feeling. You're welcome to change the browsable percentage for your title from it's current setting to 20% by following these steps:

- (1) Login to your account from <http://books.google.com/partner/login> .
- (2) Click on the 'Books' tab of your account.
- (3) Locate 'The Magic Signature Act' in your book list and click on the pencil icon.
- (4) On the 'Modify Book Settings' page, click on the Browsable Percentage drop-down menu and choose the browsable percentage you desire.
- (5) Click the 'Save & Continue' button to save your changes.

Please reply to this email if you have any problems with the process above, or if you'd like to remove your book from the program.

Sincerely,

Yoko

The Magic Signature Act should of been llisted as 09764590654 Instead of 68Z5BLKFFEB

My interpretation of 100% no load was none of the book was to be published on the Internet.

I sent Google a memo stating I only wanted part of my copyright book on the Internet only if I could decide what pages would be published.

Google Book partners search infringed on my copyrighted work. I have proof the Magic Signature Act was view at least 10 times and 389 pages were viewed. Your published the book without proper authorization, the book search partner did not even list the correct ISBN or name the publisher right (A M Benjamin Services)

Now that Google exposed my copyrighted work to the general public without my proper authorization, I have to live in fear of someone else using my intellectual ideas without my benefit.

According to The Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998, I am entitled to monetary damages for your infringement.

Removing my copyrighted work acknowledges your infringement. The web page views proves it was viewed and 20 years of hard work developing the theories was given away for free when my publishing company is struggling for money.

Unless an offer for my damages is offer by the end of this week, I will filed charges against Google in Federal Court.
