21	The above-captioned matter came before the Court on December 20, 2005, for
22	status. The defendant, RONNIE CALLOWAY, who was present and was represented by
23	Susan Raffanti, Esq., and the government was represented by Richard J. Cutler, Assistant
24	United States Attorney. The case was then continued to join the co-defendants' case
25	currently set for status on March 29, 2006, at 2:00 p.m. The Court made a finding on the
26	record that the time between December 20, 2005, and March 29, 2006 should be excluded
27	under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(3)(B)(8) and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1, because the ends of justice served by taking such action outweighed the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. That finding was based on the complexity of the case, the defendant's request for additional time to review an extensive amount of discovery material provided by the government, as well as time to insure the effective preparation of her counsel. Counsel for the defendant indicated a need for additional time to adequately prepare the matter, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. That finding was made pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(8)(A) and (B)(ii).

The parties hereby agree to and request that the case be continued until March 29. 2006 at 2:00 p.m. and that an exclusion of time until that date be granted. The parties agree and stipulate that the additional time is appropriate and necessary under Title 18, United States Code, Sections 3161(h)(8)(A) and (B)(ii), because the ends of justice served by this continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.
