STIPULATION FOR LEAVE TO MODIFY THE SCHEDULING ORDER TO EXTEND HEARING DATE AND MEDIATION CUT-OFF

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

The Honorable Maxine M. Chesney

Complaint filed: December 8, 2009

1 The parties stipulate as set forth in the numbered paragraphs below, based on the 2 following facts:

- 3 A. The Scheduling Order (Dkt. No. 33) set initial deadlines in this case. The Order 4 scheduled, among other things, dates for briefing the parties' motions and cross-5 motions for summary judgment on two affirmative defenses.
- 6 B. The parties have stipulated to extensions of those deadlines, most recently in order to 7 accommodate conflicts for both parties that had arisen with the then scheduled 8 hearing and mediation dates, and to adjust the summary judgment hearing date and 9 mediation cut-off accordingly (see Dkt. No. 67).
- 10 C. However, Jerome Jauffret, the attorney for defendants who is the primary drafter of 11 the moving and opposition papers for the motions for partial summary judgment, and 12 is responsible for arguing those motions, has just been diagnosed with a medical 13 condition (herniated disk) which is causing him constant severe pain in his right 14 shoulder, arm and hand, loss of sensation in part of his right hand, and temporary 15 inability to effectively use his right arm and hand even with the use of strong pain
16 medication (Vicodin), which would make travelling to San Francisco and attending 17 the hearing on November 4, 2011 extremely painful and difficult and is not 18 recommended by his physician. Please also note that Mr. Jauffret is right handed.
19 Defendants therefore seek to continue the hearing on the motions for partial summary
20 judgment to December 2, 2011, and Plaintiffs concur. This is earliest available date
21 for the parties because November 11, 2011 and November 25, 2011 are court 22 holidays, and Plaintiffs' counsel is not available on November 18, 2011 because of 23 hearings that date in Southern California in other class actions, one in the morning
24 and one in the afternoon. In addition, the parties believe a successful mediation
25 depends on a ruling on the summary judgment motions. Thus, Defendants propose a 26 continuation of the mediation cut-off deadline, from December 21, 2011 to January 27 31, 2012, and Plaintiffs concur. The parties have agreed to hold the mediation on any
