Furnace v. Nuckles et al

Doc. 278

map [that] are relevant to [p]laintiff['s] claims"; and (3) "protocols for responding to alarms" (see Order Regarding Outstanding Issues, filed April 23, 2015 ("Order") at 5, 8, 9). The motion, however, is based on evidence not presented to the Magistrate Judge, which evidence, according to CDCR, has become relevant after the Order was issued.

Accordingly, CDCR's motion is hereby DENIED, without prejudice to CDCR's submitting to Magistrate Judge Laporte a motion for leave to file a motion for reconsideration, see Civil L.R. 7-9(b), or any other appropriate filing seeking reconsideration of the subject order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
