2. Counsel for Plaintiff has spoken with Judge Chen's chambers and as of July 15, 2010, the October 15, 2010 date was available on Judge Chen's calendar. If that changes and Judge Chen is unavailable on the October 15, 2010 date, the parties agree that the settlement conference shall be continued until October 14, 2010 at 10 a.m. before Judge Chen, when his chambers has indicated that he is also available.
  3. This is the first continuance sought of the settlement conference. The reason for this request by the Plaintiff is that she would like to include the City's responses to recent written discovery in her settlement conference brief, which are not due until later this month. Also, she would like to conduct the two depositions permitted her by the Court prior to the Settlement Conference.
  4. The October dates listed above are the first openings available on Judge Chen's calendar.
  5. Counsel for Defendants has agreed to this request and counsel for Plaintiff appreciates his professional courtesy in this regard
  6. All other orders not in conflict with this stipulation shall remain in full force and effect.
