Hi Danny Miller,

We apologize for the confusion of your users, but assure you that Chain Rxn is not a direct duplication of your game.

Hi,

My name is Danny Miller. I'm the creator of Boomshine. I would like you to please remove Chain Rxn immediately from Facebook and all sites with the game published as it's a direct duplication of my game. I never gave permission and many people are confusing your game with mine.

I initially heard about your application via emails from users telling me that someone has ripped off my game.

A few lawyers have contacted me on this subject, and I'm prepared to go through with this issue legally if the game is not removed with the next few days.

Thank you,
Danny Miller
