INITIAL DISCLOSURES

- (A) The name, and if known, the address and telephone number of each individual likely to have discoverable information that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment, identifying the subjects of the information.

Response:

Please see Exhibits "A" and "B", attached hereto.

- (B) A copy of, or a description by category and location of, all documents, data compilations, and tangible things that are in possession, custody, or control of the party and that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment.

Response:

Please see Exhibit "C", attached hereto.

- (C) A computation of any category of damages claimed by the disclosing party, making available for inspection and copying as under Rule 34 the documents or other evidentiary material, not privileged or protected from disclosure, on which such computation is based, including materials bearing on the nature and extent of injuries suffered.

Response:

Plaintiffs will supplement this response in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

- (D) For inspection and copying as under Rule 34 any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment.

Response: None.
