1 The parties agree, subject to the Court's approval, to the scheduling of a settlement
2 conference with Chief Magistrate Judge Maria-Elena James, and taking the case management 3 conference scheduled for June 23, 2011 off calendar until after the settlement conference has taken
4 place. The United States took the depositions of claimants and two of their sons in May. The parties 5 informally discussed the possibility of settlement toward the end of the two days of depositions, but 6 were unable to reach an agreement. Because the parties agree that a settlement may be possible if 7 there is a settlement conference with a Magistrate Judge, they would like the opportunity to explore 8 the possibility of settlement at such a conference. The United States, however, requests that the 9 settlement conference be scheduled only on a Wednesday, Thursday or Friday because the officer
10 involved in this case is a local law enforcement office who works Wednesday through Sunday.
