UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
For the Northern District of California

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of California
San Francisco Division

PRESTON D. MARSHALL,
Plaintiff,
v.
JOHN HUFFMAN, et al.,
Defendants.

No. C 10-1665 SI

ORDER RE: ATTENDANCE AT MEDIATION

Date: April 10, 2013
Mediator: William Hebert

_____
Mariah Carey is a famous celebrity with a busy schedule and the risk is too great that plaintiff will exploit that schedule for undo advantage. Requiring her to appear tomorrow presents precisely such a risk and she is excused from appearing in person as long as she is available to appear by phone as needed assuming the mediation goes forward tomorrow. Nonetheless, the court orders her to appear for at least one mediation session in person so long as she is given three weeks notice and she need not appear for more than three hours. The mediator should work this out so as to minimize the burden on Ms. Carey. If the mediator wishes to go forward tomorrow with Ms. Carey on telephone standby that is up to the mediator.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
