Management Statement:

Update

The attorneys met on site on November 29, 2010, and worked out a tentative list of modifications to the Restaurant. On that date, a revised draft Settlement Agreement was provided by Plaintiff's counsel to Defendant's counsel.

Defendant has not responded to the revised draft Settlement Agreement. On December 7, 2010, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Need for Mediation.

Joel Franciosa was appointed as the Mediator. On January 14, 2011 a Mediation teleconference was held. Mediation was set for March 8, 2011. The Parties were encouraged to discuss settlement in the mean time.

1. Jurisdiction and Service:

Jurisdiction: This Court has jurisdiction of this action pursuant to 28 USC § 1331 for violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 USC 12101 et seq. Pursuant to supplemental jurisdiction, attendant and related causes of action arising from the same facts are also brought under California law, including but not limited to violations of California Civil Code §§ 54, 54.1 and 55. Venue: Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 USC 1391(b) and is founded on the fact that the location where Plaintiff experienced discrimination is located in this district and that Plaintiff's causes of action arose in this district. No issues exist regarding personal jurisdiction.

All defendants have been served, and will have Answered by the Conference date.

2. Facts:

This is a disability access case brought pursuant to the ADA and California law. Plaintiff alleges that he is disabled. Defendant owns the real property in Oakland where a Restaurant is operated. Plaintiff alleges that on March 12, 2010, he patronized the Restaurant and encountered barriers to the disabled. Plaintiff seeks an injunction, damages and attorneys' fees.

3. Legal Issues:

Whether the business has barriers which are readily achievable to remove; whether the business is in violation of ADAAG or California's Title 24 because of the date of original construction and alterations (if any); the nature and extent of any damages (if any) suffered by Plaintiff and; whether Plaintiff is entitled to, and the reasonable amount of, Plaintiff's attorneys' fees and costs.

4. Motions:

No Motions have been made or are pending. No Motions are currently anticipated.

5. Amendment of Pleadings:

No amendments to the pleadings are currently anticipated.

6. Evidence Preservation:

No steps have been taken to preserve any paper or electronic evidence. No such steps are thought to be needed.

7. Disclosures:

The parties will make their Initial Disclosures by March 1, 2011

8. Discovery:

Discovery taken to date is as follows:

The scope of anticipated discovery is as follows:

No limitations or modifications of the discovery rules are requested.

The parties' proposed discovery plan pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P.26(f) is as follows:

(1) No changes to the timing, form, or requirement for disclosures under Rule 26(a) or local rule are requested. The parties have made/will make their Initial Disclosures as indicated in paragraph 7, above;

(2) (a) Plaintiff will seek to discover the ownership of the property, the construction history, a detailed survey of the property by Plaintiff's Expert and, if Defendant asserts the defense that the modifications requested by Plaintiff are unduly expensive,

Defendant's income from the property.

(b) Defendant will seek to discover Plaintiff's physical condition, facts regarding Plaintiff's alleged patronage of the business, Plaintiff's damages, if any, and the opinions of Plaintiff's Expert.

(3) The parties do not seek any changes to the limitations on discovery imposed under the FRCP or Local Rules.

(4) The parties do not request any other orders, whether under Rule 26(c) or under Rule 16(b) and (c).

9. Class Action:

This is not a class action.

10. Related Cases:
