IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JAMES WILLIAM FROST,
Plaintiff,

No. C 10-02476 WHA

v.

AURORA LOAN SERVICING, LLC and
AURORA BANK FSB,
Defendants.

NOTICE REGARDING PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Plaintiff has responded to an order to show cause for his failure to respond to a motion to set aside default by defendants. The sequence of recent filings has been: (1) defendants' motion; (2) order to show cause for plaintiff's failure to oppose; (3) opposition brief by plaintiff; (4) order setting aside default and setting case management conference; (5) plaintiff's response to the order to show cause. Plaintiff's response states that he filed his opposition late because he has been working overtime lately so he cannot always complete legal research and document preparation in the time allotted for submission.

Given that default has already been set aside and a case management conference is set for March 3, no further action is needed with regard to the order to show cause. Plaintiff must be aware, however, that he must always comply with deadlines in this matter. If he needs more time to comply with a deadline he must ask for more time in advance. Extensions will not always be
