A case management conference was held on: 11/5/2010. The following Case Management Order is hereby adopted by the Court.

FURTHER CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCES ARE set for 3/16/2011, at 2PM,
AND for 10/5/2011, at 2PM.

REFERRAL TO ADR PROCESS: The case is hereby referred to the following ADR process: Private Mediation. The parties agreed to complete private mediation within 30 days after the issuance of the Court's Claim Construction Order.

DISCOVERY PLAN: Per Fed. R. Civ. Pro. and Local Rules, subject to any provisions below.

DISCOVERY LIMITS:

The parties agreed to a total of 100 hours as to non-expert depositions, with a maximum of 14 hours for each of the two inventors. The parties also agreed to 25 interrogatories and 50 non-authentication requests for admission for each party. At this time, requests for production of documents and requests for admission as to authentication are unlimited.

As to translation of documents, translation is required for those documents either party intends to offer at trial. If one party translates a document, or multiple documents, that party will provide a copy of the translation to the other party at no cost.

As to the location of depositions, outside of the parties' agreement to make certain individuals available for deposition in Los Angeles, California, the party requesting the deposition shall be responsible for the costs and arrangements in connection with embassy-based depositions in Japan.

Until a protective order is finalized and adopted, the parties agree to use the default protective order of the Northern District of California. Based on the parties' representations, the Court will not appoint a special master, for whom the parties would split the costs, at this time.
