23 Defendants.

Case No. CV-10-2766 WHA

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~
 ORDER REQUESTING THE COURT
 WITHDRAW SEPTEMBER 29, 2011
 ORDER

1           WHEREAS, on September 29, 2011, the Court signed an Order (“September 29, 2011
2 Order”) requiring Defendant to produce “Aviation Safety Action Program” (“ASAP”) reports
3 submitted by technicians employed by Defendant at either San Francisco International Airport or 4 Oakland International Airport, who have submitted three or more ASAP reports, whether
5 accepted or rejected by the ASAP committee, during the period January 1, 2007, through August
6 31, 2008.
7

8           WHEREAS, the September 29, 2011 Order further stated that the name of a technician
9 submitting any ASAP report to be produced shall be redacted and replaced by a unique numeric
10 code assigned to the individual technician and that such documents may be produced by 11 Defendant subject to the stipulated Protective Order entered in this action.
12

13           WHEREAS, the September 29, 2011 Order further stated that the documents to be
14 produced shall be served on Plaintiff’s counsel not later than October 11, 2011, and that Defendant
15 shall have one week from the date of the hearing on that matter to submit a letter on behalf of the 16 Federal Aviation Administration (“FAA”) and/or the Aircraft Mechanics Fraternal Organization
17 (“AMFA”), respectively, if either entity objects to the disclosure of the redacted documents,
18 requesting to be heard to object to the September 29, 2011 Order.
19

20           WHEREAS, the parties have reached an agreement concerning the ASAP reports subject
21 to the Court’s September 29, 2011 Order that does not require Defendants to produce ASAP
22 reports.
23

24           THEREFORE, the parties stipulate to the request that the Court withdraw and remove 25 ~~Proposed~~ Order will replace and supersede the September 29, 2011 Order.
