1 Defendant/Counter-Claimant Michael Parry (“Parry”) and Plaintiff/Counter-Claim Defendant
2 National Seating Mobility, Inc. hereby respectfully request that the case management conference 3 currently scheduled for July 27, 2012 be continued for 30 days to allow the parties additional time to 4 meet and confer regarding the issues to be addressed at the conference, particularly the issues
5 surrounding notice to the newly-certified class. The parties believe that the case management 6 conference would be significantly more productive if they were able to spend more time on the meet 7 and confer process.

8 The parties also request that their deadline to file the required joint case management statement 9 be continued until one week before the new date for the case management conference, if the Court is 10 inclined to reschedule.
