IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ORACLE AMERICA, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

GOOGLE, INC.,

Defendant.

No. C 10-03561 WHA

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART MOTION TO SEAL
(Dkt. No. 1036)

Oracle moves to seal the exhibits to Meredith Dearborn’s declaration in support of its motion to exclude portions of the Rule 706 expert report of Dr. James Kearl as well as redacted portions of that motion. Google submits a supporting declaration identifying those portions of the redacted material containing sensitive, non-public information (Dkt. No. 1104).

Exhibit A to the Dearborn declaration includes sensitive, non-public financial data related to Android such as costs, revenues, and profits, as well as projections thereof. The Exhibit also contains non-public information about Google’s financial management and financial data storage. Public disclosure of this confidential information would cause harm to Google and place it at a competitive disadvantage.

Certain portions of Exhibit B to the Dearborn declaration also contain sensitive, non-public information regarding Google’s accounting practices, financial management, and storage of financial data. Public disclosure of this confidential information would cause harm to Google and place it at a competitive disadvantage.

The identified portions of Oracle’s motion to exclude portions of the Rule 706 expert report of Dr. James Kearl refer to Exhibits A and B as well as sensitive data contained therein. These materials are also appropriately identified as sensitive, non-public information pertaining to Google’s financial management.

The request to seal is accordingly GRANTED as to all identified materials, and DENIED as to the remaining material in Exhibit B.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 9, 2012.
